

When folks grow old and drop off with heart trouble it is easy to understand because the machinery of the human body has worn out, but when a buxom young woman is laid up with heart trouble, it leads us to wonder if it was caused by deep thought and earnest consideration of attempting to solve the problems of matrimony.

The difference between the outburst of enthusiasm in the Young Democratic meeting here and the mixed lot of Republicans was: Our young men used prewar ammunition while the Republicans had a jug of moonshine stashed in the wash room and it had been diluted to such a degree that it had no enthusiasm left in it.

Ben Roberts of Poplar Bluff, pled guilty to voting illegally in the April election and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at Jefferson City. This is for the benefit of those voting illegally in Sikeston.

Many exchanges carry items priced ten, twenty and some sixty years ago as fillers, not news items. The Standard has printed so many things in the past that were displeasing to some that we are afraid to reprint now for fear of a whipping. It is a case of let a sleeping dog lie.

Recent rains have done tremendous good to wheat, oats and grass, but no doubt some farmers are getting a bit nervous about preparing their land for corn.

However, as between too much moisture and too little, we always fare better in the end under the former situation, and yet this is one year when it is to be profoundly hoped that the gods will give us about the right proportions.

According to Frisco Railroad officials, the watermelon and cantaloupe acreage this season in Southeast Missouri counties will be larger than last year. Dunklin, Scott and other counties will send large acreages. According to Frisco Division Superintendent J. S. McMillan, the railroad handled 1100 carloads of melons to market last season.

The litter of polecats in the Standard office certainly helped the old tumble bug roll up a handsome lineage for the paper the past week. Of the 2504 inches of advertising carried in Sikeston's papers The Standard carried 2084, leaving Sikeston's second paper 420 inches. We will add further The Standard carried 1180 inches more paid advertising during the week than the other four papers in Scott county. There is a reason. Sikeston has a larger field to work, we are in the center of the Promised Land and our merchants are using the medium that is read to place their advertising. We are thankful for the patronage received.

Just a legitimate and pertinent question: Do you know of a single county agent in any of the Southeast Missouri Counties, who is a Democrat? It is our information that, while these men are competent, they are not in sympathy with the agricultural program and have given more or less comfort to the enemies of the Washington administration. Democratic counties should refuse to employ men out of sympathy with their political beliefs.

Some of these days before long the Scott county court will have to spend a lot of money on the county building to keep it from falling apart in places. It is very noticeable that the joints in the terra cotta need repointing and realigned, the front concrete steps are cracked and the finish cement coat dropping, and the entire outside as well as the inside needs paint. This is not a complaint just an observation from a visitor.

According to recent figures, 1-028,000 farm families are on the relief rolls, or about one family out of every seven, and who could have envisioned such a dismal situation a few years ago? Let us hope that we will have good crops this year, and that as a result the above families will be able to get along without Uncle Sam's help ere the snows of another winter come. At best he will be compelled to feed and clothe millions in the cities for the next several years, and that will be burden enough.

A Republican friend stated the speakers at their meeting a few nights ago made no promise whatever as to their way of putting the depression to route as they had profitted by the unkept promises of the Democrats. At least friend Republican had to confess the Democratic president had tried about everything the college brains had suggested.

Here is drama! Shattering the town, startling a people whipping into a fevered excitement a whole population and embroiling everyone from officials to outcasts—all because of "Transient Lady!" Rex theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

NUMBER 63

LIGE MCGILL, HUNTED FOR TWO YEARS, CAPTURED

Lige McGill, suspected of participating in numerous crimes in Southeast Missouri and hunted for more than two years for questioning, was arrested late Friday afternoon at a filling station on Highway 61 immediately south of Luxora, Ark.

He is now in the Benton jail, where he may be held until he is charged with one of several crimes. Neither confessing nor denying complicity in several Southeast Missouri robberies, McGill asked to be given time before relating his experiences, officers said. He talked very little.

The suspect was taken quietly at the filling station he had been operating four months. While one car bearing officers stopped in front of the station, two others were driven into the station area-way nearby. Stepping out to service the first car, McGill discovered he was surrounded by officers.

"All right," he said, "I'll put them up. Don't shoot me. I know what it's all about."

At the time of his arrest, McGill was not armed. Inside the station, however, officers found a combination shotgun and rifle and a pistol. McGill was living in Arkansas under the name of Everett Mack. His wife and three children were with him.

Officers who went to Luxora Friday after Sheriff Joe Anderson had received a tip concerning McGill's residence were Sheriff Anderson, Trooper John Tandy, Marshal Charles LaFont and the Portageville constable, and R. E. Stewart, special agent for the Frisco railroad. They were accompanied to the station by two Arkansas officers and the Blytheville chief of police.

Large groups of officers have hunted for McGill on many occasions during the last two years. One time they searched in Perry county for two days and nights and another, for one night in New Madrid county. According to one officer, McGill admitted he barely escaped capture in Perry county. Troopers and other officers went to the house where he was living after he had disappeared, but once, he said, he hid in a hogan, watching Trooper Little go to a farm house nearby to telephone.

McGill formerly lived in Portageville. He is 29 years old.

Park to Visit Sikeston

GOVERNOR GUY B. PARK

Governor Park will head a delegation of state officials who will leave their desks on Friday, May 31, for a Missouri Chamber of Commerce air tour, which will include a lunch stop in Sikeston. Among others who will be part of the aerodrome are Dwight H. Brown, secretary of state and president of the state chamber; Frank G. Harris, lieutenant-governor; Lloyd W. King, state superintendent of schools; Roy McKittrick, attorney-general; Forrest Smith, state auditor; Richard B. Nacy, state treasurer; V. H. Stewart, commissioner of motor vehicles; and George A. Pickens, secretary of the state chamber.

Contracts for almost all of the 800 miles traversed in seven Southeast Missouri counties by the Little river drainage ditch have been let and the work of clearing the ditches of brush, drift-wood and growths of willows has begun. Many firms have been awarded contracts for the work, some during the winter months and others only last week.

Blodgett Couple Wed

Miss Elizabeth Greer and Earl Blackwell were married by Judge J. T. McDonald in Jackson Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Blackwell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Greer of Perkins, formerly of Blodgett, will graduate this month from the Blodgett high school. Mr. Blackwell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Blackwell of Blodgett and an employee of the Mamliton-Brown Shoe Company in St. Louis.

Three Attend Meet in Columbia

Paul Jones, Jr., Glen Matthews, Jr., and Billy Bob Donnell left Friday for Columbia, where they watched events of an annual high school track and field meet. They returned here Sunday.

High School Ball Game Called off

The Sikeston-Ilmo high school baseball game, set for Friday, was called off by Ilmo when Mustang players found they were unable to meet the Bulldogs in Benton. It is unlikely that the game will be played later. On Monday afternoon, the Sikeston nine was scheduled to play Diehlstadt here. On Thursday, the Benton team, which the Bulldogs defeated 7 to 6 in their first game this season, will come to Sikeston for a game.

Charged with Passing Bad Checks

Franklin Trickey of Jackson was arrested by Trooper Melvin Dace Saturday for passing worthless checks at Charleston. He is now in the Mississippi county jail, Trooper Dace said. On the same day Trooper Dace arrested Chas. Windrich of Cape Girardeau and charged him with driving in Cape while he was drunk. He is now out on bond awaiting a preliminary hearing.

LOSES 2 TEETH AS CAR IS DRIVEN INTO DITCH

Miss Ruby Fitzpatrick of Bertrand sustained a cut on her lip and the loss of two teeth Friday night when the car in which she was riding went into the ditch in front of the Wides service station at the Y south of town. Billy Pope driver of the car, missed the entrance to the station as he turned in to get gasoline. The cut in Miss Fitzpatrick's lip was stitched by Dr. H. M. Kendig. The car was not damaged.

DACE DISCOVERS ILLINOIS FUGITIVE AT DANCE HALL

By suspecting a man he saw at a dance in East Prairie Saturday night, Trooper Dace captured a fugitive wanted in Menard, Ill., for theft of a mortgaged car and for failure to report after his parole from a grand larceny sentence in an Illinois reformatory.

The man is Otis Wadkins, who has been living in East Prairie for about a month. He was placed Sunday in the Charleston jail, where he was to be kept until Illinois officers came after him.

Stopping Buck Miller of Wyatt Saturday night, Trooper Dace charged him with driving a car bearing a license borrowed from the garage where Miller works. After the officer granted Miller's request that he be allowed to talk briefly with a constable the two went to a room in which a dance was being held.

Standing in the dance hall while Miller conferred with the constable Trooper Dace saw Wadkins, whose appearance aroused his suspicion. He learned from questioning a man standing near that he had been around East Prairie a month. The man pointed out Wadkins' car for Trooper Dace.

With the automobile license number, Trooper Dace returned home, and after an investigation he learned of the charges against Wadkins. On Sunday he drove to East Prairie, arresting Wadkins, whom he found on the streets.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED FOR SENIORS AT CHARLESTON

Charleston, May 4—With the end of school but two weeks distant, thirty-seven seniors of the Charleston high school are beginning to look back and see how short the four years of high school life really were.

Their final week of being "Seniors" starts Sunday, May 12, with the baccalaureate sermon at the high school auditorium. Rev. R. M. Talbert, pastor of the Christian church will deliver the sermon. A union service will be held, all pastors assisting.

On Tuesday night, May 14, the seniors will present their play, "After Ten Years", at the auditorium.

The junior class will be hosts to the senior on Wednesday night, May 15 at the annual junior-senior banquet, also to be held at the high school.

Commencement exercises will be held at the high school auditorium on Thursday evening, May 16, with Robert Lyle.

The seniors will be officially voted into the alumni association on Friday evening, May 17, at the alumni Banquet to be held at the

3.93 INCHES OF RAIN

FELL DURING WEEK-END

With 3.93 inches of rainfall in four days, but with most of it on Saturday and Sunday, Sikeston was again flooded last week-end as debris-filled sewers failed to carry off surface water.

Beginning Thursday, rain fell periodically during the rest of the week, with steady, heavy showers on Saturday and with a light drizzle Sunday and rising temperatures. Occasional showers fell Monday. The forecast for today is cloudy and warmer.

These rainfall totals were recorded by John LaFont, who reads instruments at the Frisco station at 7 o'clock each morning. Friday's reading, 1.16 inches; Saturday's, .06; Sunday's, 2.21; and Monday's .50.

VITALITY WINS 10 TO 5 FROM FRIEDMAN-SHELBY

By Leo Smith
The Vitality team went into a tie for first place with the Peters team last Friday when they defeated the Friedman-Shelby team by a score of 10 to 5.

G. Bennett, C. Smith and Schaefer hurled for the Friedman-Shelby team, Schaefer being the most effective although he pitched only one inning, one man getting the first base as a result of an error and striking out three batters. He was also the leading slugger for his team, getting three hits out of four trips to the plate.

H. Weeks and B. Crain hurled for the winners with Manager Crain the winning pitcher, allowing only three hits and one run in five and a third innings.

The score by innings:

FORMER RESIDENT DIED THURSDAY IN ARKANSAS

John A. Poindexter, a resident of Sikeston between 1900 and 1917, died Thursday at his home in Smackover, Ark.

Last week-end his body was sent here for funeral services, which were held in the Welsh chapel at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, the Rev. E. H. Orear officiating. Burial was in the city cemetery.

Mr. Poindexter was born in Virginia more than eighty-five years ago, on March 6, 1850. Most of his life he spent in Missouri. Here, he operated a confectionery in quarters on North New Madrid street.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mary Farmer of St. Louis and Mrs. Lillie Rice and Mrs. Kate Ingram, both of Smackover. His wife died several years ago. Welsh service.

APOLLO GROUP TO GIVE MUSICAL TEA WEDNESDAY

They are Mesdames Moore Greer, E. H. Orear, Harvey Johnson, Geraldine Young, L. R. Burns, R. A. Moore, H. E. Reuber, V. L. Bowles, Sam Bowman, Jr., Tanner Dye, and Roscoe Weltecke and Misses Eleanor Hartly, Kathryn Clark, and Gwendolyn Kirk. Frederic Claiborne and members of his string ensemble will also be on the program.

Before the tea ends, a silver offering will be accepted. All residents are cordially invited.

DORCAS CLASS TO MEET WITH MRS. MOLL TUES.

A meeting of the members of the Dorcas class of the First Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Moll this (Tuesday) evening, May 7. At this time plans will be made for the Mothers-Daughters banquet to be held in the church basement Friday evening of this week. Every member expecting to attend the banquet is urged to attend the class meeting tonight, or notify some of the members whether or not you plan to attend the affair.

It is being brought here through the courtesy of the Sikeston Motor Company and will be exhibited free to the public. To supplement the display, C. Wiley Stanley, an internationally known criminologist and for long connected with the Associated Anti-Crime Union, will lecture, telling facts about Barrow and his associates, which were not related in news stories.

Sunday afternoon. On Sunday morning he preached at Ilmo and in the afternoon, he delivered a commencement address to Delta high school graduates.

The Senate should be abolished; there is little doubt of that now. The other day a senator was making a filibustering speech on the sales tax bill, just to kill time, since time counts for so little with senators, and when a brother member asked him a question he took three and a half hours to answer the question. In the "answering" he talked about everything he could think of. Don't you agree that a body that would permit the like of that deserves to be

It is mighty early to cause worry about the Dionne girls, but some of these days when these black-eyed, round-faced lassies get into the teens the boys will have considerable trouble to tell just which one he was courting the last time. The girls may have a good time, too, each timing the boys and telling each other of the sweet little compliments passed on her by the lad. Oh, heck, and we were born nearly three score and ten too early.

The Cash-Book has always tried to be consistent. During the dirty Smith-Hoover fight we condemned the religious issue in the campaign, and particularly the activities of ministers neglecting their first duties and engaging in politics. Bishop Cannon was attacked with all the vigor at the hands of the editor, and our opinion of him has not changed up to the present time. We defended the Catholic church, and held that one who adhered to that faith was just as much entitled to hold public office as any Protestant. With equal vigor we intend to condemn Father Coughlin whose principal interest now appears not to be centered in the work of his Master, but in politics. The Catholic church will be taken to task for the actions of Father Coughlin just as the Methodist church for Bishop Cannon, and rightly so.—Jackson Cash-Book.

There are 500 stone slabs in the morgue of Bellevue Hospital, New York City, and most of these are occupied continuously with human bodies brought in from all parts of the city. They are for the most part victims of murderers, accidents, suicides, even starvation. It seems incredible that there could be so many violent deaths in one city. Sometimes additional resting places for corpses must be improvised, as in the case of the disaster such as the recent Morro Castle disaster, whose victims were brought to Bellevue. A continuous stream of sorrowful, dejected human beings pass along the aisles between the rows of bodies trying to recognize relatives or friends. The sight of these hundreds of unburied dead laid row upon row is an experience no one can ever forget. It is convincing proof of the frailty of human life.—Ex.

The president has asked 23 men to advise him about how to spend the five billions Congress has authorized. Only one adviser really was needed. We are too modest to use our name in this connection. But if the matter finally is left to us our advice will be to use the money for the construction of 2,000,000 new homes at $2,500 apiece for people who are now improperly housed. This would make business hum in every American county and put two million families on a better footing.—Paris Appeal.

The rehabilitation of down-and-out farmers is one of the finest activities in which the Government is engaged. In every county in the nation selected men are being put back upon the land, with all necessary livestock and machinery for a good start. But the country will have its joke, even at the expense of so worthy an effort. It is that a city man at the head of the rehabilitation department made out a list of things from which the selected farmers were to raise things for future needs, as follows: Two female hogs, two female cows, five female sheep, forty female chickens and one female mule.—Paris Appeal.

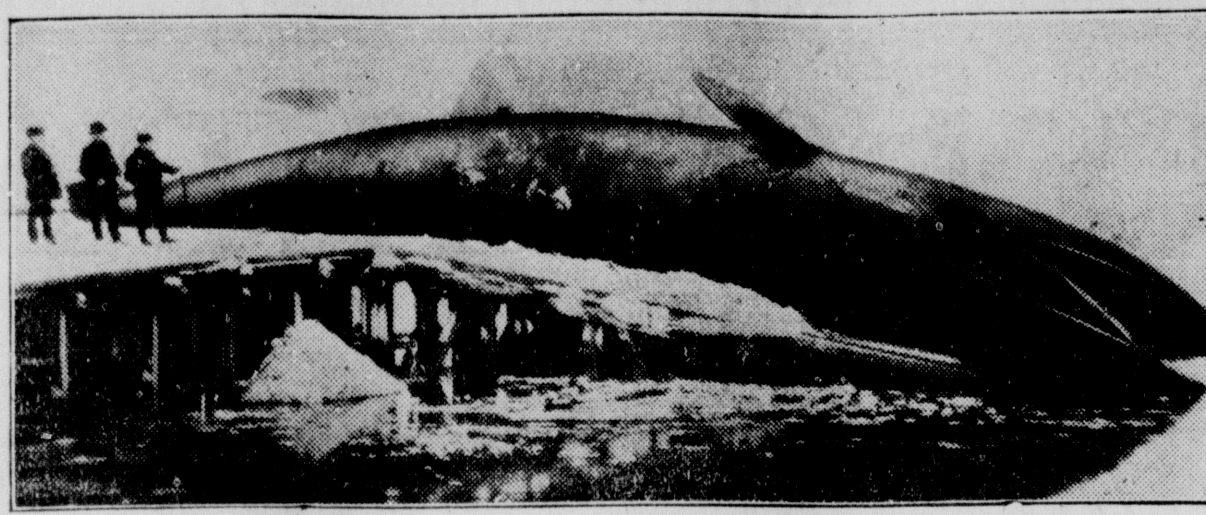

Do not get the notion that when the barons, Magna Charta in one hand and battle-axe in the other, cornered King John at Runnymede, they were sore or anything like that. When Charles Martel turned back Attila at Tours, it was just good clean fun. And when Max Baer hit Primo Carnera with everything but the water bucket, his heart was nevertheless flowing with loving-kindness for the big Italian. We are moved to these historical musings by a news dispatch from Washington quoting President Harper Sibley of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce as saying that the chamber's resolutions opposing administration policies will be presented to Mr. Roosevelt "in a friendly way." Just like the spirit that animates the spring strawberry festival.—Pose-Dispatch.

THE "PENGUIN FAMILY" FUNNY LITTLE MEN WITH DRESS SUITS WITH THE WHALE EXHIBIT

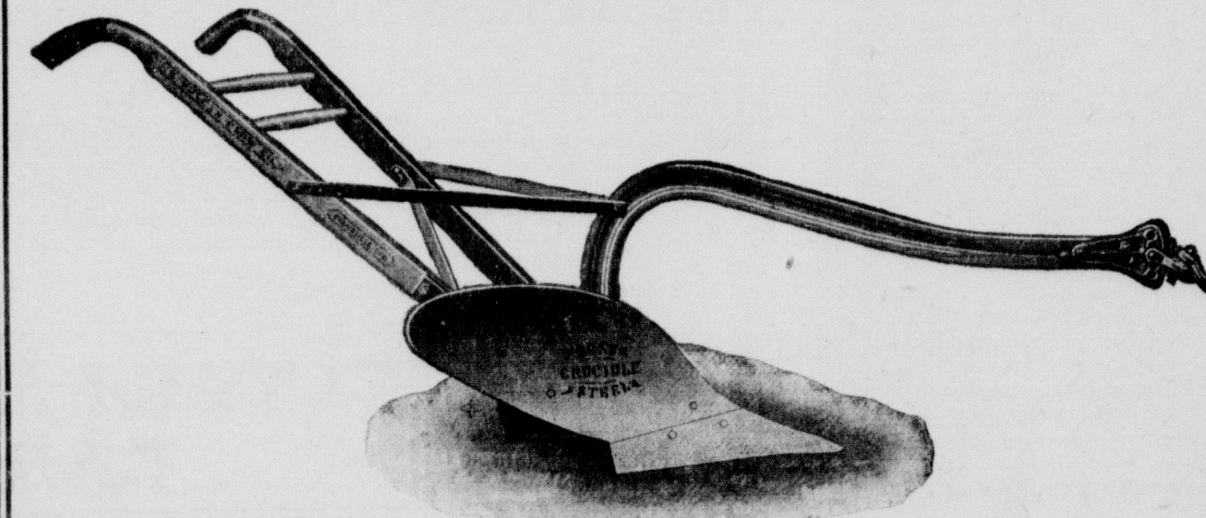

Something new at last, said the Press representative of the Pacific Whaling Co. as he barked into the Journal-Transcript office and laid a heavily loaded portfolio on our desk and began telling us of the wonders with the Big Whale Exhibit which will be here Wednesday, May 8 only. This something new is the group of live Penguins that the Pacific Whaling Co. is carrying with the display for this tour. The funny little bird family that stand erect and walks like men and look as though they were dressed in hard shirt fronts and two tail coats. These little birds from the Ant-artic waters do not fly but walk and swim only. Live the biggest part of the time in water and will only enter water that is salted. Will not swim in fresh water. In place of wings they have flippers or fins, walk erect in the manner of fins. Chaplin when out of water. In fact these little fellows are very awkward and are quite funny with their funny rolling walk.

They eat only live fish and the fish must be in the water so that they can catch them themselves. They likewise mate only once in a lifetime and lay but two eggs a year—one in September and one in February. These little birds are very affectionate and like to be petted. It is said that when mated if one or the other should die the other will soon follow. As they become grief stricken over the loss of their mate and die from grief over their loss. Along with the big Whale this family of live Penguins will be on display from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.—daily. There is a number of other exhibits on the hundred and fifty-foot railroad car which will be here Wednesday, May 8.

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. Mrs. C. E. Radloff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

LIGHT, WATER OFFICE TO NEW ROOMS THIS WEEK

The city light and water office will probably be moved to new quarters in the People's bank building by the end of this week. Equipment of the Southeast Missouri Burial Association, which now occupies the People's bank, will be transferred either today or tomorrow to the Shankle building on West Center street. The bank rooms will be ready for occupancy again as soon as they are cleaned.

The name, People's Bank Building, will be entirely removed from the structure into which the light and water department will move. A suitable board of public works sign will be erected in its place.

NEGRO JAILED FOR FAILING TO PAY OLD CITY FINE

Edru Davis, a Sikeston negro who failed to work out a city fine in March, was arrested last Friday night in a cabin behind the Del Rey Hotel.

Davis was found after an extensive search of Tin Can alley cabins conducted by Night Marshal Gid Daniels and Walter Keaddall, chief of police. He is now in the city jail, where he will be held for non-payment of his fine.

Arrested March 5, Davis was fined $17 for drunkenness and fighting. He was committed to the street commissioner and ordered to work out the fine, but he did not report. Davis is also suspected of stealing two suits, two pair of shoes, and a pair of trousers from another negro.

AMERICAN LEGION TO FIGHT ACCIDENTS

The highway safety problem took a long step toward solution lately with the announcement that the American Legion is to carry on an aggressive, organized program in the interest of automobile accident prevention. The program is detailed in a booklet jointly published by the Legion and the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters.

Under the suggested plan, the safety program will be handled by the Legion's Americanism Commission. Working under it will be State Traffic Committees, composed of representatives from each district. These committees in each state will maintain contact with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Motor Vehicle Commission, the State Highway Patrol and the Legislature.

Next there will be district safety committees, composed of a representative from each county in the district. These will hold meetings to be composed of a representative of each local post in the county. The representative of each local post will work with local police, schools, city councils and engineering departments. All of the committees will cooperate with automobile clubs, insurance companies, newspapers, safety associations and similar organizations.

Workers in the cause of safety believe that the Legion can be of tremendous aid in reducing the inexcusable accident toll—a toll which reached 35,000 people killed on streets and highways last year. The Legion is to be complimented on accepting this arduous duty—and the result will be happier and safer living for the people of the country.

STATE'S APRIL RAINFALL BELOW 46-YEAR NORMAL

Although Southeast Missourians had a great sufficiency of rain during April, the entire state's precipitation was almost an inch below that of a forty-six year normal for Missouri.

The total rainfall in the state last month was 2.94 inches, while the normal is 3.92, according to figures released in St. Louis by Roscoe Nunn, head of a department of agriculture weather bureau.

The rainfall has been large enough, however, to make the present condition of most crops satisfactory. By the end of last week, corn planting had become almost general, and in the Southeast counties, cotton planting was well under way.

Wheat, oats, rye, barley and alfalfa have made good to excellent progress, Mr. Nunn said. Some wheat is twenty inches high; much of it is jointing; and some has reached booting stage. Early planted oats are beginning to stool, and some rye and barley are heading. Pastures are fair to very good, though in some places the effects of last year's drought are still noticeable.

While tomatoes and other truck garden products are making satisfactory progress, most strawberry beds are dead, with probably only about a fourth of the usual acreage expected to yield.

Washington Comment

An April day of collar-wilting heat turned the thoughts of the legislators on Capitol hill to springtime in the Rockies, the banks of the Wabash and other subjects having nothing to do with the swelter and humidity of a Washington summer, but the indications are that congressional noses will be close to the grindstone for some time to come. The law-making mill has slowed down somewhat, the grist to be ground continuing to arrive in car load lots, which is a bad combination if knocking off is contemplated. Banking requires attention. The NRA needs a new foundation, or at least some props. Social security is a large and pressing matter. The bonus payment sleeps lightly and is far from the snoring stage. The White House pressure for action along many lines is strong. Upon the whole, it looks as though Congress were in for a protracted season of face-mopping, illumination by means of midnight oil and other badges of hard and long-continued toil. Speaking of toil, constituents have something to learn if they think that their congressional representatives have no business in Washington more serious than picnics, beer bouts and pleasure jaunts.

The move of a foreign government to put a curb on submarines warfare is based partly on an honest desire to take some of the horror out of war and partly on the circumstance that in the last world-conflict the allies came off second best so far as under-sea activities were concerned. The submarine has an advantage over all other fighting machines, in that it can remain practically concealed until the moment of attack. How far nations having definite plans for defense or aggression will be willing to go, along the line of dropping the submarine, is something that was remains to be ascertained. A man-propelled vessel of that type was tried during the Civil War with partial success, and thereafter fifty years of effort were spent in the perfecting of underwater craft. The submarine came slowly and it may depart slowly.

A New England train reaches a speed of 110 miles per hour, a performance considered worthy of notice in the papers, and possibly establishing a record of some kind. Away back in 1848, there was a train that hit it off at 63 miles per hour. Considering the improvements in equipment that have been made since 1848, the old-timers did not make a bad showing.

Testimony given by United States army officers before a House committee, to the effect that the Canadian boundary should be fortified, was most untimely. It will have no support outside the limited circle in which a chip is carried perpetually on the shoulder. Each year, millions of citizens of the United States receive practical instructions in friendly and satisfactory international relations when they slip in to and out of the Dominion almost as easily as they shuttle back and forth across the line which divides Pennsylvania from New Jersey. As a matter of fact, anyone whose conduct is governed by the most elementary principles that tend to make foreign travel pleasant, finds himself at home in Canada. The adjustment required is less than that which is necessary, for example, when a Vermonters goes to Arizona. The President's comments on the incident are so timely that his summary is quoted in full.

"I call your especial attention to the fact that the Government not only accepts as an accomplished fact the permanent peace conditions cemented by many generations of friendship between the Canadian and American peoples, but expects to live up to not only the letter but the spirit of our treaties relating to the permanent disarmament of our 3000 miles of common boundary."

3 AMONG CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES AT M. U.

Three Sikeston residents are among the 729 students who will be candidates for degrees at the University of Missouri commencement on Wednesday morning, June 5.

They are Glenn W. Anderson, a candidate for the degree of bachelor of science in agriculture; Edith Esta Becker, candidate for a bachelor of science degree in education; and Conley Purcell, a candidate for a degree of bachelor of laws.

Commencement week activities will begin at the university on Sunday, June 2, when the Rev. Arthur James McClung, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church at Springfield, Mo., delivers the baccalaureate sermon. Monday will be class day for seniors. The commencement exercises will begin at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Dr. George F. Zook, director of the American Council of Education and former United States commissioner of education, will deliver the address.

These other Southeast Missourians are also candidates for degrees: Donald McCreery, Oliver and William Arthur Owenby of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of arts; William Brady Camp of Lilbourn, James Meredith of Poplar Bluff, and Given Edwin Shively and Louis Bernard Arnold, of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of arts; William Duncan Shrader of Hayti and Clarence Edward Foard of Doniphan, bachelor of science in agriculture; Mary Jo Sherwood of Dexter, bachelor of science in home economic.

Marshall Morgan Walker of Bertrand and Rufe Dalton of Doniphan, bachelor of science in business administration; William Perry Wright, Jr., of Charleston, bachelor of science in public administration; Alfred C. Moon of Malden, bachelor of science in education; Edward William Edelen of Charleston, Elizabeth Baldwin of Kennett, and Margaret Grace Wolpers of Poplar Bluff, Bachelor of journalism; Robert Burrett Oliver, III, and Sanford Russell Vandivort of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of laws; James Ott of Lottes of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of science in medicine; and Lillian Imogene Martin of Fomfelt, a graduate nurse. Mr. Edelen completed work for his degree in January.

TROOPERS HERE BREAK PREVIOUS RECORD FOR RECOVERING STOLEN CARS

More stolen automobiles were recovered by Troop E patrolmen last month than during any other month in their history, records kept by Sergeant R. R. Reed show.

The April total of fifteen cars recovered is three times as large as the number ordinarily found by troopers and twice as large as the previous high figures.

All kinds of automobiles, old and new, were recovered by patrolmen last month. Their values, ranging from as low as $50 to $700, total $4025.

In addition to their work with stolen cars, patrolmen were unusually active last month in performing others of their duties. Trooper Melvin Dace recovered five stolen bicycles, and together, all troopers made ninety-one arrests, thirty-four of them for felony charges.

Thirteen convictions for felonies have already followed the arrests, with sentences totaling forty-three years. Of the ninety-one persons arrested thirty-eight have been convicted; six have been released; and seven turned over to other officers. The cases of thirty-six are pending, and those of four have been dismissed by the patrol.

Troopers also helped at six accidents during April; had 812 motor lights corrected; issued 150 warnings; and rendered 19 services. To complete this work they traveled 25,823 miles.

CROWDS FILL GRABER'S ON FIRST DAY OF SALE

Despite cold, rainy weather crowds so filled the front entrance and the sidewalks before Graber's early Saturday morning that employees could scarcely open the doors for the store's huge remodeling sale.

Immediately afterward and throughout the day, people filled the store aisles trying to buy at bargain prices all kinds of merchandise sold at Graber's. Even with the help of an extra force of clerks, employees were rushed to fill orders.

Inside the store large placards

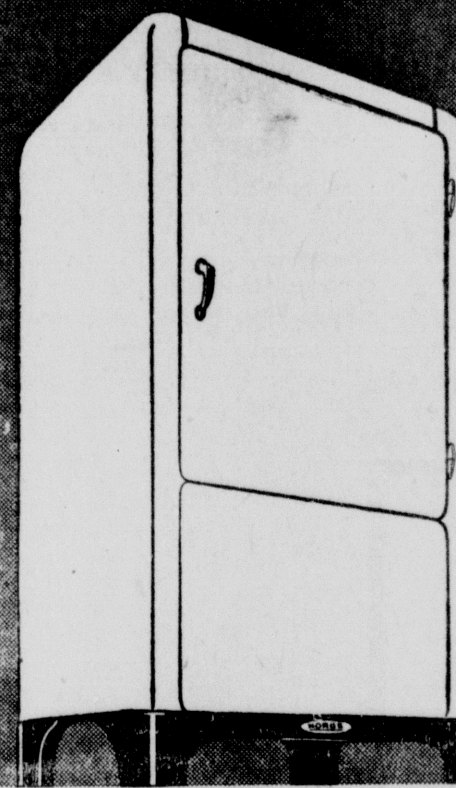

told of the sale, of especially attractive bargains, and of prize offers. In front, behind a complete background of Graber's wrapping paper, which covered the show windows, were large bills announcing the sale and listing articles available at reduced prices. The greatest treat of the year—

The view taken of the situation in Washington at this time, according to impressions gathered by M. R. Rowland of this county on his recent visit there, is that pressure against the AAA regulations on the part of textile manufacturers and other interests is so great that abandonment of the government's plan to aid agriculture may be forced. If this is done and all restrictions are removed, cotton will drop back to its old level of 5 or 6 cents a pound and it will again be a race among cotton producers to see who can raise the most of the staple. No farmer nor any person who has the farmer's interests at heart will wish to see this occur and the country go back to its old level of prices and practices. Just now it seems to be largely up to the farmers themselves to protect themselves, for unless they put up a fight something nearly as strong for the program as is being put up by various interests against it they are likely to lose all the ground they have gained. This would be the severest blow that could happen to the South.—Caruthersville Democrat.

Mrs. Rubye H. Thompson, County school superintendent of Mississippi county has received notice that a member of the State Department of Education will be in Charleston on Thursday, May 9, to meet the school boards of districts where the average daily attendance is less than fifteen relative to their state aid for next year.

$3000 LOSS RESULTS FROM FIRE AT BENTON

Damage estimated at $3000 resulted when fire early Thursday destroyed a barn and chicken house owned by Everett A. Dye and located at the northern edge of Benton.

The loss included farm machinery and hay stored in the barn. Chickens and the stock in the barn were saved, but by the time the fire was discovered soon after midnight, it had burned too much of the loft, where it started, to be extinguished. Members of a bucket brigade worked in vain.

The blaze was thought to have been caused by lightning. The chicken house, joined the barn, had been finished only a few days before the fire. The Dye house, about 100 yards from the scene of the fire, a second barn and a garage were not damaged.

A college boy has asked his senator to get him a mountain lion for a pet, and an Idaho woman has offered to trap and ship a specimen. fund set aside by the government for use in such emergencies and the money has already been transferred to the Memphis office of the U. S. Engineers. Engineers and levee boards in the area had estimated that it would require that amount to complete the work of repairing that many breaks.

The engineers are at present making their final surveys and staking out the work preparatory to the placing of the 11 draglines that are being shipped here from all around this vicinity. The capacity of each dragline is estimated, will be from one and a half to two cubic yards. These draglines, providing the weather is satisfactory, will work three eight-hour shifts, or 24 hours per day, thus making it possible to complete the work in the short time of three weeks. Twenty-one of the levee breaks are on the Missouri side of the river with sixteen more located on the Arkansas side.

Kennett will be the location for the field office of the engineers with most of the detail work being carried on from the local office. Among those engineers who will probably be working out of this office are: W. C. Abernathy, Jim Hoge, Frank Spencer, Cecil Gregory, R. Hunter, William Harris, E. P. Burley, Harvey Utley, and others.—Dunkin Democrat.

Greta Karen Hale, 9-year-old daughter of Alan Hale, film actor, fell down a flight of steps, suffered a severe injury, but did not tell her father because she didn't want to worry him. Two days later she collapsed, and it was discovered that her spinal vertebra had been broken in two places. Physicians say that her heroic but ill-advised action, will cause her to remain in a plaster cast many months longer than usual.

Personal and
Society News
From Oran

The Methodist congregation gave their pastor an old fashioned "pounding" after prayer meeting Wednesday night of last week. The reverend gentleman expressed his thanks in the following original poem:

"A grand And Glorious Feeling"
(With apologies to Edgar A. Guest)

By W. H. Hansford, Oran, Mo.
When your pantry's almost empty
And your pocketbook is flat;
When you want some o' that,
And you need some o' that,

'Tis a grand and glorious feeling,
To have your friends come calling
In a friendly sort o' way.

When you haven't got the money
To meet your monthly bills;
And when you feel faint-hearted
To face life's dreadful ills,

'Tis a grand and glorious feeling,
When you've gone to church to pray,
To have your church folks calling
In a friendly sort o' way.

And when they bring you groceries,
Like flour, sugar and lard,
And innumerable other good things—

Well, you wish you were a bard;
For then you'd sing their praises,
If you could think just what to say.

When these friends come calling
In a friendly sort o' way,
Since I'm neither bard nor poet,
But a humble pastor instead,

I'll simply say, "God bless you,
Who have my family fed."
And when you need my service,
Whether it be night or day,

I'll not forget your visit
In that friendly sort o' way.

"The number of baby chicks produced so far this year is 40 per cent below last year. Authorities predict a serious shortage of both poultry and eggs next Fall with corresponding high prices. This presents a fine opportunity for those poultry raisers who have stuck to the game. Feed costs are low and our good poultry men should make a handsome profit before the year is over."

NEW MADRID COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

The state department tells us that they do not plan to print a State Course of Study for next year which means that teachers must use the same old copies that were used the past two years. It will pay teachers to hold on to their old copies for the supply is exhausted and new copies of the 1933 edition are not available. Teachers quitting the profession should leave their Courses of study for successors.

In a letter to school boards just before the April election, we suggested that the budget for the next school year would be about the same as the budget for the past year unless the legislature provided for an increase in revenue. At this writing the legislature is still in a quandary and we do not know what results to expect.

For this reason several boards are again resorting to flexible contracts for the coming term, writing the contract for the amount that they are reasonably sure to be able to pay and then promising a bonus in case of a surplus at the end of the year. If a bonus is promised it should be specified on the bottom of the contract in definite terms. Last year the following clause was used:

"Provided, that if sufficient funds are on hand in the Teachers Fund at the end of the school year that a bonus of $ per month shall be paid to said teacher, or any part thereof that may be on hands."

In case of more than one teacher in the district, the following statement should also be included in the above clause:

"If not enough to pay bonus in full then balance shall be prorated among teachers."

Miss Betty Ann Abernathy of the Tinsley School was married on April 9th to Clay Claran of Portageville, and she does not plan to teach next year. Miss Virginia Twitty has been employed at Tinsley for the coming term.

The writer visited the closing day exercises at the Farrenburg School last Friday and participated in the bountiful community dinner which was spread for all. Graduation address was made in honor of following eighth grade graduates: Pauline Moss, Janette Robinson, Orville Blue, Eugene Moss, James Sweet, Hollace South, and Thomas Wilson. Mrs. Estelle Smith Horton is the teacher and will teach there again next year.

Other graduation exercises visited lately and list of graduates are as follows:

Wilburn: Elmo Kennedy, Daisy Wilburn, Alpha Mae Clore, Hazel Cook, Miss Dena Parker teacher.

Cade: Helen Wilburn. Mrs. Alma Skaggs, teacher.

Point Pleasant: Pauline McCrady, Lucille Waggoner. Miss Randolph, teacher.

Fairview: Sibyl Sims, Jewel Beck, Warren Cockman, Marie Shell, Motell Beck, Annie Johnson, Reva Cantwell, Roland Tetley, Richard Cantwell is principal and Mrs. Geneva Calvin Beck, primary.

Tinsley: H. B. Hillis, Paul Roberts.

erts. Betty Ann Abernathy, teacher.

Scott: Roy Bertholomey, Freda Carson, Bethel Girvin. Mrs. Ruth Marr is principal and Miss Helen Long, primary.

Other lists of graduates will be given later as well as new school boards and newly elected teachers. Many boards have not reported as yet.

County eighth grade graduation exercises for colored rural schools were held at New Madrid on April 23 under the sponsorship of Jeanes Supervisor Corinne H. Johnson, and the following graduates received diplomas: Carrie Mitchell and J. S. Minner of St. Mary School, and Virginia Manna, Scott McGraw and Essex Thompson of Neumann School. Mary Flournoy is teacher at St. Mary and Pearl Wade at Neumann.

Nine more pupils took the final examination but did not reach the required mark however several of them made a good showing.

CITY SOFTBALL LEAGUE SCHEDULE IS COMPLETED

A schedule for the city softball league, which will be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was completed this week, when three new teams were entered to replace others which dropped from the group.

Players will now participate in two four-team leagues, called the American and the National. The National league is composed of the Sikes Hardware team, managed by John and Kendall Sikes; the Lions club team, by Clay Mitchell; the American Legion, by Harry Dudley; and the Highway department, which will probably be managed by Melvin Dace.

In the American league are these teams: H. & L. drug store, by Jack Lancaster; Buckner-Ragsdale's Store, by Harold Ansell; the national guard, by Joe Ryan; and the Midwest Dairy Products Company by Ted Kirby. Each team will have a roster of twenty men.

Doubleheader games will be played on the high school athletic field each Wednesday and Friday evenings, beginning May 22. The first match will be started at 7, and the second at 8 o'clock. Permission to use the school floodlights without charge was granted at a council meeting Tuesday night.

Admission to all games will be free. Five cents will be charged for championship games, however, so that sponsors may secure enough money to buy a trophy.

Spalding rules will be official, and members of the Chamber of Commerce athletic committee will make rules, appoint and approve umpires, and settle controversies. Team managers must file lists of players seven days before the first game, but they may trade players until July 1. Men comprising their teams must either live or work in Sikeston.

Managers were scheduled to meet at the H. & L. drug store Thursday night to discuss details of the softball league.

The schedule is printed below.

May 12—Sikes vs Lions; H. & L. vs Guards.

May 24—Midwest vs. Buckner; Legion vs Highway.

May 29—Sikes vs Lions; Midwest vs H. & L.

May 31—Guard vs Buckner; Lions vs Highway.

IN MEMORIUM

In memory of our dear little son and brother, Billy Monroe Demaris, who was killed by Frisco train one year ago today, May 3, 1934. We will always think of the little grave not far away, where we laid our darling a year ago today.

We are thinking of you Darling; we loved to see you play.

Only God knows how we miss you since he took you away. You are a shining angel without a worry or care, and you know when God calls us we will meet again up there.

Sadly missed by parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estel Demaris and children.

WELTECKE WINS SUIT AGAINST NEGRO CHURCH

Roscoe Weltecke was given a judgment last week against the Sikeston negro Methodist Episcopal church when his unlawful detainer suit was heard in the Cape Girardeau county circuit court.

Weltecke was also granted a monthly rent of $25 and a stay of execution to July 1, 1935.

First filing an unlawful detainer action in Judge Joseph W. Myers' court here, Weltecke withdrew the suit and instituted it, instead, in the Scott county circuit court. It was taken to Jackson on a change of venue.

In his original petition Weltecke stated he bought the church property at a foreclosure sale on August 18, 1934. Church members refused either to turn it over to him or to pay rent for its use, he said.

Sharp could not be reached for a statement.—Lilbourn Banner.

Pupils in the Mater Dolorosa School at Holyoke, Mass., found their desks laden with candy, fruit and sweetmeats, distributed by the widow of Anthony Symasko, whose dying wish was that every child should have something to remember him by. As a permanent keepsake each pupil received a pencil with Symasko's name engraved on it.

NEW MADRID LAW FIRM DISSOLVES

The law firm of Sharp and Baynes of New Madrid of many years standing was dissolved Tuesday, May 1 so states Col. R. F. Baynes of the firm. Both attorneys will continue to occupy their present quarters but will practice separately.

Neither partner has made any expression concerning the future, although it is believed that E. F. Sharp of the old firm will take his son Bryon and form a new firm of Sharp and Sharp. Mr.

"NOT A KICK IN A MILLION FEET"

Jack Williams, editor and publisher of the Waycross (Ga) Journal-Herald, says:

"I spent last Monday in the heart of the Okefenokee Swamp, a guest of the engineering party that is making the survey of the scenic highway through this Great wonderland, much of which has never been surveyed or plotted. An area larger than the state of Rhode Island with twenty-one fair sized islands and hundreds of smaller ones has no parallel in the United States.

"The history of this section reads like a romance, down where the semi-tropical sunshine filters through jungles of gray moss and plays hide-and-go-seek among the wild roses, yellow jasmine and shimmering wisteria. Here the soft wind whispers sweet melodies as it dances through the groves of stately pines, palms and magnolias, bringing the music of the waters as it gently laps the shores of the fern-fringed lakes and streams.

"Here the shimmering surface of the open waters of the lakes and creeks was once broken by the rhythmic dip of the Indian's paddle, and he plied their placid depths, and the perfume-laden breezes sang sweet lullabies to the dark-eyed Indian maidens.

"Now all is quiet in these isolated spots, except possibly for the tap of a woodpecker on a dead tree, the bark of a squirrel, the gobble of a wild turkey, the whistle of a bobwhite, the cry of some animal to his mate, or the occasional splash when some alligator, floating like a log, suddenly sings into the murky waters. Leaving no trace other than the rippling waters as they gently kiss the nearby shores."

21 JUGS OF LIQUOR SEIZED IN RAID HERE

Twenty-one jugs of liquor were seized and taken to Cape Girardeau by federal agents who raided a garage lot near Campbell's home of North Ranney street Saturday afternoon.

At Cape Girardeau, where he appeared before Commissioner Caruthers, Campbell pled not guilty to possessing untaxed whiskey, and was bound over to the October term of the federal court. Campbell was released on a $1000 bond. The court will convene in Cape Girardeau on Monday, October 14.

Entering the garage building, which contains a bedroom and a storage room besides space for a car, agents found the whiskey, smashing nineteen jugs and keeping two for evidence.

Campbell was arrested, he thought, because he had put his car in the garage to avoid getting it wet, since he had had it repaired Saturday. The garage was left open, he said, and was used at different times by several residents of the neighborhood.

The agents, O. B. Knapp, and Mr. Jenkins, both of Cape Girardeau, also searched Campbell's house and outbuildings after Campbell had given them keys to unlock the doors. They found nothing incriminating, he said.

A man whose name was not learned was said to be sought here unsuccessfully Saturday for questioning about the liquor. The garage which was raided is located on North Ranney's intersection with East Center street.

Charles Settles, 64, farmer near Texarkana, Tex., predicted the World War two years before it started, when he read sure signs in torpedo-shaped eggs. Last week similar eggs led him to forecast another war within two years.

AFRICA'S DARK CHIEFS HAVE WHITE SLAVES

Paris—Reports shortly to be issued will show an alarming increase in a new form of slavery in the African colonies of France.

These reports concern the traffic in white girls for the harems of colored potentates.

So far, it will be shown, this form of slavery has defied all efforts at control, for most of the girls involved are of age and have the right to sign their liberty away if they wish to do so.

At first, this traffic in white girls was confined to Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco, but now it is extending all over Northern Africa. It is stated that there is hardly a dusky vassal of France in this territory who has not a quota of white girls in his harem.

They may be "wives" or just dancing girls, but in either case, their position is the same—they have been bought in the open market.

The situation is amazing—the white races which have done so much to stamp out slavery in Africa supplying slaves for the race that was formerly enslaved.

Many of the victims, it is true, believe that when they sign their contracts they are taking up dancing engagements in the harems and palaces of the African "Kings" and nobles; but, once signed up, they are no longer their own masters.

They are fed and housed so long as their looks last, then—beggary, or worse.

It is believed that throughout Northern Africa there are thousands of the white slaves of all European nationalities.

OUTSTANDING EVENTS IN U. S. NAVAL HISTORY

Fighting on the Peiho River—June 25, 1858—"Blood is thicker than water." In 1859 England and France were at war with China. These Chinese had built some forts on the mouth of the Peiho River (near Peking) and had placed obstructions across the mouth of the river. English forces under Admiral Sir James Hope were sent to clear away these obstructions. America was not involved in the war, and Captain Josiah Tattnall, USN, watched the operation from a chartered steamer. Suddenly the Chinese forts opened a heavy fire on the British forces. For a time Tattnall watched the British being shot down like rabbits. Finally he cried, "Blood is thicker than water," and manning a boat with some American sailors, he went to the aid of the British. The boat was sunk by a Chinese shell, and Tattnall and his sailors swam to the British flagship. Climbing aboard this ship which flew the British flag, they helped to load the British guns and to fire them at the Chinese troops. Later Tattnall helped to bring English reserve forces into the battle. Such actions on Tattnall's part were a direct violation on America's neutrality, and he was reprimanded for his behavior. However, this deed did much to cement the friendship of the American and English in the Far East.

FRANK DYE AGAIN HEADS RURAL MAIL CARRIERS

The Scott and the Mississippi county rural carriers' associations were combined and officers were elected at an annual meeting of Scott county rural carriers held at the Oran parochial school Sunday.

The officers, who will serve a one year term are Frank Dye of Sikeston, president; and Clarence O'Neal of Ilmo, secretary-treasurer. An East Prairie carrier was chosen vice-president.

Auxiliary officers, who were re-elected are Mrs. Clarence O'Neal of Ilmo, president; Mrs. Frank Dye of Sikeston, vice-president; and Mrs. Ben Adams of Benton, secretary-treasurer.

These Sikeston residents attended the meeting: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Williams, their sons, Glenn and Earl Orear. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. John Noggle of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Chunn of East Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Marshall of Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Millersville.

The next meeting of the Scott-Mississippi county rural mail carriers' association will be held at Chaffee on the first Sunday in May, 1936.

A convention of the Southeast Missouri rural mail carriers' organization will be held at Steele on May 30 of the year.

SIKESTON SENIORS RANK HIGH IN APTITUDE TEST

In a college aptitude test conducted recently by the University of Missouri, Sikeston high school seniors ranked above average, their median being 66, while the state's was 58. Superintendent Roy V. Ellis announced Monday, Sikeston's upper quarter showed 80 as compared with 76, while the lower quartile was 43 instead of 44.

The highest ranking student was Mary Margaret Russell, whose score of 118 placed her in the highest 1 per cent. Helen Johnson, who ranked second with 106, was in the upper 3 per cent, and Evelyn Allard, third, Billy Bob Donnell, and Mary Emma Powell, were in the upper 12 per cent.

These others in the upper fourth, Marion Thrower, Mildred Williams, Margaret Fisher, Pauline Husher, John Layton, and Dorothy Waller, ranging in the order named, were placed in the upper 20 per cent of the 14,000 students tested in Missouri and the 30,000 in Ohio, the state where the examination was compiled.

Only three Sikeston seniors ranked in the lower 10 per cent.

SENATOR B. M. CUTTING KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Bronson M. Cutting, United States senator from New Mexico, and at least three other persons were killed early Monday when a twin motored Transcontinental Western Air Company plane crashed near Atlanta, Mo.

The three known dead are the pilot, and an unidentified woman. Nine other passengers were taken to the Samaritan hospital in Macon, fifteen miles from the field in which the plane fell after the fuel supply was exhausted.

Senator Cutting, who sat well back in the cabin, was identified by papers found in his pocket. His billfold contained $576 in cash, a picture of his mother, and a check to a telephone company bearing the name of Oliva M. Cutting.

Thirteen persons were on the ship when it crashed. Arriving at Kansas City from Albuquerque, at 2:30 Monday morning, the pilots discovered that the Kansas City airport was covered with fog and smoke, and after they had tried unsuccessfully to land for twenty minutes, they were ordered to attempt to reach the department of commerce emergency landing field at Kirksville. They were not far from the field when the fuel supply gave out.

BROTHERS KILLED WHEN CAR COLLIDES WITH TRAIN

Two brothers were killed and two other young men were severely injured early Sunday when the car in which they were riding collided with a fast northbound Frisco passenger train at a railroad crossing in Portageville.

The dead are Calvin Hamilton, 21 and Virgil Hamilton, 17, instantly killed when their necks were broken. The third brother, Henry Hamilton, 15, is in the St. Francis hospital at Cape Girardeau, where he is expected to recover if complications do not develop. The second man seriously hurt, Oscar McAllister, 28, is in a Memphis, Tenn., hospital.

Willie Neil, 18, and Luther Noland, 17, also occupants of the car sustained only minor injuries. All the young men were residents of Point Pleasant.

Returning to their homes after spending the day in Portageville, the young men came to the crossing while their car was traveling about 35 miles an hour. When the automobile ran into the side of the locomotive, according to witnesses, the car's rear end was thrown against the coal tender. The impact almost demolished the machine.

Dan Alexander, the Frisco station agent at Portageville, said at an inquest held Sunday that an electric warning bell was ringing and that the locomotive's whistle was being blown as the train approached the crossing at a speed of about 55 miles an hour. Rain-fall was heavy at the time of the accident.

The two dead men were riding in the front seat, Calvin Hamilton driving. The other four men were in back.

Funeral services were held at Portageville Sunday afternoon and burial was in a Portageville cemetery. Besides Henry Hamilton, the two are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hamilton, who are farmers; another brother, Harlan; and three sisters, Lula, Lola and Ruth Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Kirby, of Festus, and Mr. and Mrs. Vodyl Kirby, of Sikeston, are leaving this morning for California on a vacation.

Golf Game Postponed

The Sikeston-Poplar Bluff golf game, scheduled to be played here Sunday afternoon, was postponed because of inclement weather. It will probably be run off on some open date before the end of the Southeast Missouri round robin league season.

Fined for Reckless Driving

A charge of dangerous and reckless driving, filed against S. T. Sturgeon, was dismissed in Judge Joseph W. Myers' court Saturday when Sturgeon paid court costs and $5 for damages to H. D. Lambert's car, which Sturgeon was supposed to have struck on a street here in April.

HAS SECOND OPERATION

Dr. L. O. Rodes is recovering satisfactorily after undergoing a second operation Friday for the removal of two inches of bone from his left leg, which was recently amputated at Barnes hospital in St. Louis.

Jailed for Disturbing Peace

Delmar Martin, Frank Neal, Nathan Martin, and Madison Riddle were all committed to jail for twenty days when they pled guilty in Judge Joseph W. Myers' court late Saturday to disturbing the peace by fighting and rioting. The men, who were arrested in the northwest part of town by Constable W. O. Ellis, were sent to jail when they were unable to pay fines of $1 and costs imposed on them by Judge Myers.

Larry Harper, 14, of Fairhope, Ala., fashioned a diving helmet out of an old gasoline drum and a bicycle pump. To prove his faith in the device, he tied an 8-pound window sash to his arm and lowered himself into 29 feet of water in a sink hole. The air pump failed to function and two hour's resuscitation efforts failed to revive the boy.

The rings of a rattlesnake's tail give little indication of the reptile's age. Rarely is a snake found with more than 10 or 11 rattles. The whip-cracking effect of the tip keeps them broken off and new rattles are grown at the front of the tail.

DUN FORECAST SHARPEST BUSINESS RISE IN 25 YEARS

WASHINGTON—The sharpest business rise in 25 years was forecast for the immediate future in the weekly business review by Dun & Bradstreet.

"More convincing proof has come forward that the passing of March left behind the lows for the year," the review stated.

"During the week there was a complete transformation of sentiment, as the hopes for a rather for-removed improvement were replaced by a realization that the immediate future is to bring the sharpest rise that has been witnessed in business in the past quarter of a century."

The review added that the rise "will be fortified adequately to prevent the interrupting recessions which followed the spurts of the last 2 years."

It continued: "Potential benefits of the $5,000,000,000 appropriated by the Government have provided stimulus needed to dispel the impatience which had appeared in some branches because of the let-down in business toward the close of the first quarter.

"All of the reports received were more decisive than at any time this year in the confident attitude taken regarding a more even tempo of progress from now on.

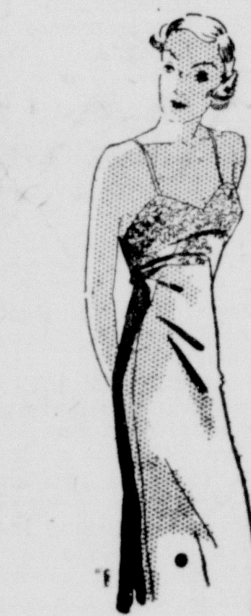

"Encouragement also was provided by the fact that, in spite of rain, cold, snowfall, and recurrent dust storms, consumer demand was sufficiently strong to carry total than thehmshtsmm carry retail distribution to a larger total than for the week preceding."

Tom Dalton, 27, New York steeplejack, made an unwilling start toward a flagpole sitting record until he was rescued by firemen. He was painting a flagpole 75 feet above the ground when the rope on his bos'n's chair fouled and he was stranded, unable to lower himself. After almost two hours of struggle, he called for help, and a hook and ladder company came on the run.

THE EDITOR
SAYS—

When folks grow old and drop off with heart trouble it is easy to understand because the machinery of the human body has worn out, but when a buxom young woman is laid up with heart trouble, it leads us to wonder if it was caused by deep thought and earnest consideration of attempting to solve the problems of matrimony.

The difference between the outburst of enthusiasm in the Young Democratic meeting here and the mixed lot of Republicans was: Our young men used prewar armament, while the Republicans had a lot of moonshine stashed in the wash room and it had been diluted to such a degree that it had no enthusiasm left in it.

Ben Roberts of Poplar Bluff, pled guilty to voting illegally in the April election and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at Jefferson City. This is for the benefit of those voting illegally in Sikeston.

Many exchanges carry items printed ten, twenty and some sixty years ago as fillers, not news items. The Standard has printed so many things in the past that we are afraid to reprint now for fear of a whipping. It is a case of let-a sleeping dog lie.

Recent rains have done tremendous good to wheat, oats and grass, but no doubt some farmers are getting a bit nervous about preparing their land for corn. However, as between too much moisture and too little, we always have better in the end under the former situation, and yet this is one year when it is to be profoundly hoped that the gods will give us about the right proportions.

According to Frisco Railroad officials, the watermelon and cantaloupe acreage this season in Southeast Missouri counties will be larger than last year. Dunklin, Scott and other counties will send large acreages. According to Frisco Division Superintendent J. S. McMillan, the railroad handled 1100 carloads of melons to market last season.

The Hitter of polecats in The Standard office certainly helped the old tumble bug roll up a handsome lining for the paper the past week. Of the 2500 copies of advertising carried in Sikeston's papers The Standard carried 2084, leaving Sikeston's second paper 420 inches. We will add further The Standard carried 1180 inches more paid advertising during the week than the other four papers in Scott county. There is a reason. Sikeston has a larger field to work, we are in the center of the Promise Land and our merchants are using the medium that is read to place their advertising. We are thankful for the patronage received.

Just a legitimate and pertinent question: Do you know of a single county agent in any of the Southeast Missouri Counties, who is a Democrat? It is our information that, while these men are competent, they are not in sympathy with the agricultural program and have given more or less comfort to the enemies of the Washington administration. Democratic counties should refuse to employ men out of sympathy with their political beliefs.

Some of these days before long the Scott county court will have to spend a lot of money on the county building to keep it from falling apart in places. It is very noticeable that the joints in the terra cotta need repointing and realigned, the front concrete steps are cracked and the finish cement coat dropping, and the entire outside as well as the inside needs paint. This is not a complaint just an observation from a visitor.

According to recent figures, 1,028,000 farm families are on the relief rolls, or about one family out of every seven, and who could have envisioned such a dismal situation a few years ago? Let us hope that we will have good crops this year, and that as a result the above families will be able to get along without Uncle Sam's help in the snows of another winter come. At best he will be compelled to feed and clothe millions in the cities for the next several years, and that will be burden enough.

A Republican friend stated the speakers at their meeting a few nights ago made no promise whatever as to their way of putting the depression to route as they had profited by the unkept promises of the Democrats. At least friend Republican had to confess the Democratic president had tried about everything the college brains had suggested.

Here is drama! Shattering the town, startling a people whipping into a fevered excitement a whole population and embroiling everyone from officials to outcasts—all because of "Transient Lady!" Rex theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

VOLUME 23

SIKESTON, SCOTT COUNTY, MISSOURI TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 7, 1935.

NUMBER 63

LIGE MCGILL, HUNTED FOR TWO YEARS, CAPTURED

Lige McGill, suspected of participating in numerous crimes in Southeast Missouri and hunted for more than two years for questioning, was arrested late Friday afternoon at a filling station on Highway 61 immediately south of Luxora, Ark.

He is now in the Benton jail, where he may be held until he is charged with one of several crimes. Neither confessing nor denying complicity in several Southeast Missouri robberies, McGill asked to be given time before relating his experiences, officers said. He talked very little.

The suspect was taken quietly at the filling station he had been operating four months. While one car bearing officers stopped in front of the station, two others were driven into the station area nearby. Stepping out to service the first car, McGill discovered he was surrounded by officers.

All right, he said, "I'll put them up. Don't shoot me. I know what it's all about."

At the time of his arrest, McGill was not armed. Inside the station, however, officers found a combination shotgun and rifle and a pistol. McGill was living in Arkansas under the name of Everet Mack. His wife and three children were with him.

Officers who went to Luxora Friday after Sheriff Joe Anderson had received a tip concerning McGill's residence were Sheriff Anderson, Trooper John Tandy, Marvin Dace, and Percy Little. Marshal Charles LaFont and the Portageville constable, and R. E. Stewart, special agent for the Frisco railroad. They were accompanied to the station by two Arkansas officers and the Blytheville chief of police.

Large groups of officers have hunted for McGill on many occasions during the last two years. One time they searched in Perry county for two days and nights and another, for one night in New Madrid county. According to one officer, McGill admitted he barely escaped capture in Perry county. Troopers and other officers went to the house where he was living after he had disappeared, but once, he said, he hid in a hog pen, watching Trooper Little go to a farm house nearby to telephone.

McGill formerly lived in Portageville. He is 29 years old.

Park to Visit Sikeston

GOVERNOR GUY B. PARK

Governor Park will head a delegation of state officials who will leave their desks on Friday, May 31, for a Missouri Chamber of Commerce air tour, which will include a lunch stop in Sikeston. Among others who will be part of the aerodrome are Dwight H. Brown, secretary of state and president of the state chamber; Frank G. Harris, lieutenant-governor; Lloyd W. King, state superintendent of schools; Roy McKittrick, attorney-general; Forrest Smith, state auditor; Richard B. Nacy, state treasurer; V. H. Steward, commissioner of motor vehicles; and George A. Pickens, secretary of the state chamber.

Little River Ditches being Cleaned

Contracts for almost all of the 800 miles traversed in seven Southeast Missouri counties by the Little river drainage ditch have been let and the work of clearing the ditches of brush, drift-wood and growths of willows has begun. Many firms have been awarded contracts for the work, some during the winter months and others only last week.

Blodgett Couple Wed

Miss Elizabeth Greer and Earl Blackwell were married by Judge J. T. McDonald in Jackson Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Blackwell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Greer of Perkins, formerly of Blodgett, will graduate this month from the Blodgett high school. Mr. Blackwell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Blackwell of Blodgett and an employee of the Mamliton-Brown Shoe Company in St. Louis.

Three Attend Meet in Columbia

Paul Jones, Jr., Glen Matthews, Jr., and Billy Bob Donnell left Friday for Columbia, where they watched events of an annual high school track and field meet. They returned here Sunday.

High School Ball Game Called off

The Sikeston-Illmo high school baseball game, set for Friday, was called off by Illmo when Mustang players found they were unable to meet the Bulldogs in Benton. It is unlikely that the game will be played later. On Monday afternoon, the Sikeston nine was scheduled to play Diehlstadt here. On Thursday, the Benton team, which the Bulldogs defeated 7 to 6 in their first game this season, will come to Sikeston for a game.

Charged with Passing Bad Checks

Franklin Trickey of Jackson was arrested by Trooper Melvin Dace Saturday for passing worthless checks at Charleston. He is now in the Mississippi county jail, Trooper Dace said. On the same day Trooper Dace arrested Chas. Windrich of Cape Girardeau and charged him with driving in Cape while he was drunk. He is now out on bond awaiting a preliminary hearing.

LOSES 2 TEETH AS CAR IS DRIVEN INTO DITCH

Miss Ruby Fitzpatrick of Bertrand sustained a cut on her lip and the loss of two teeth Friday night when the car in which she was riding went into the ditch in front of the Widess service station at the Y south of town. Billy Pope driver of the car, missed the entrance to the station as he turned in to get gasoline. The cut in Miss Fitzpatrick's lip was stitched by Dr. H. M. Kendig. The car was not damaged.

DACE DISCOVERS ILLINOIS FUGITIVE AT DANCE HALL

By suspecting a man he saw at a dance in East Prairie Saturday night, Trooper Dace captured a fugitive wanted in Menard, Ill., for theft of a mortgaged car and for failure to report after his parole from a grand larceny sentence in an Illinois reformatory.

The man is Otis Wadkins, who has been living in East Prairie for about a month. He was placed Sunday in the Charleston jail, where he was to be kept until Illinois officers came after him.

Stopping Buck Miller of Wyatt Saturday night, Trooper Dace charged him with driving a car bearing a license borrowed from the garage where Miller works. After the officer granted Miller's request that he be allowed to talk briefly with a constable the two went to a room in which a dance was being held.

Standing in the dance hall while Miller conferred with the constable Trooper Dace saw Wadkins, whose appearance aroused his suspicion. He learned from questioning a man standing near that he knew Wadkins but that he had been around East Prairie a month. The man pointed out Wadkins' car for Trooper Dace.

With the automobile license number, Trooper Dace returned home, and after an investigation he learned of the charges against Wadkins. On Sunday he drove to East Prairie, arresting Wadkins, whom he found on the streets.

Brock Air Tour Director

JOHN D. BROCK

Dr. John D. Brock of Kansas City is again serving as director for the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce's annual aerodrome. Planning an itinerary different from the one followed last year, Dr. Brock announced that the tourists who start at Kansas City, proceed south to Carthage and Joplin, and remain in Springfield on the first night. From there, members of the goodwill tour will fly east to Koshkonong and Sikeston, and then north to St. Louis for the second night's stop. Columbia, St. Joseph and Kansas City are included in the schedule for the third day.

LEGERDEMAIN PRACTICED EVEN IN TIN CAN ALLEY

This is a fish story which requires no arm stretching to show length of catches.

On Saturday two New Madrid men started from their homes with a load of fresh fish. Driving north, they stopped occasionally to sell fish at farm houses and communities along Highway 61. They reached Sikeston, and after disposing of more fish, they decided—whether of their own volition or because of another's suggestion—not to sell the rest of their lot in Tin Can Alley.

Putting down their basket holding between 70 and 100 pounds of large fish, they stepped for a moment into a negro barber shop in the alley. When again they moved into the cloud-darkened light they found the alley deserted and empty of fish and basket. They did not learn before they left where fish was served that day in great quantity.

3.93 INCHES OF RAIN FELL DURING WEEK-END

With 3.93 inches of rainfall in four days, but with most of it on Saturday and Sunday, Sikeston was again flooded last week-end as debris-filled sewers failed to carry off surface water.

Beginning Thursday, rain fell periodically during the rest of the week, with steady, heavy showers on Saturday and with a light drizzle Sunday and rising temperatures. Occasional showers fell Monday. The forecast for today is cloudy and warmer.

The rainfall totals were recorded by John LaFont, who reads instruments at the Frisco station at 7 o'clock each morning. Friday's reading, 1.16 inches; Saturday's, .06; Sunday's, 2.21; and Monday's .50.

VITALITY WINS 10 TO 5 FROM FRIEDMAN-SHELBY

By Leo Smith

The Vitality team went into a tie for first place with the Peters team last Friday when they defeated the Friedman-Shelby team by a score of 10 to 5.

G. Bennett, C. Smith and Schaefer hurled for the Friedman-Shelby team, Schaefer being the most effective although he pitched only one inning, one man reaching first base as a result of an error and striking out three batters. He was also the leading slugger for his team, getting three hits out of four trips to the plate.

H. Weeks and B. Crain hurled for the winners with Manager Crain the winning pitcher, allowing only three hits and one run in five and a third innings.

The score by innings:

If you hear if any grumbling from any worker on the relief force as to the generosity of the Democratic administration giving them what little work they are getting, be he Democrat or Republican, report the party and let them be relieved from further work on relief roll. And the man who is able to buy a car license, or drive to headquarters in his car to get his dole, he is hardly eligible for public relief.

The Senate should be abolished; there is little doubt of that now. The other day a senator was making a filibustering speech on the sales tax bill, just to kill time, since time counts for so little with senators, and when a brother member asked him a question he took three and a half hours to answer the question. In the "answering" he talked about everything he could think of. Don't you agree that a body that would permit the like of that deserves to be abolished — Doniphan Prospect-News.

It is mighty early to cause worry about the Dionne girls, but some of these days when these black-eyed, round-faced lassies get into the teens the boys will have considerable trouble to tell just which one he was courting the last time. The girls may have a good time, too, good timing the boys and telling each other of the sweet little compliments passed on her by the lad. Oh, heck, and we were born nearly three score and ten too early.

The Cash-Book has always tried to be consistent. During the dirty Smith-Hoover fight we condemned the religious issue in the campaign, and particularly the activities of ministers neglecting their first duties and engaging in politics. Bishop Cannon was attacked with all the vigor at the hands of the editor, and our opinion of him has not changed up to the present time. We defended the Catholic church, and held that one who adhered to that faith was just as much entitled to hold public office as any Protestant. With equal vigor we intend to condemn Father Coughlin whose principal interest now appears not to be centered in the work of his Master, but in politics. The Catholic church will be taken to task for the actions of Father Coughlin just as the Methodist church for Bishop Cannon, and rightly so.—Jackson Cash-Book.

There are 500 stone slabs in the morgue of Bellevue Hospital, New York City, and most of these are occupied continuously with human bodies brought in from all parts of the city. They are for the most part victims of murderers, accidents, suicides, even starvation. It seems incredible there could be so many violent deaths in one city. Sometimes additional resting places for corpses must be improvised, as in the case of the disaster such as the recent Morro Castle disaster, whose victims were brought to Bellevue. A continuous stream of sorrowful, dejected human beings pass along the aisles between the rows of bodies trying to recognize relatives or friends. The sight of these hundreds of unburied dead laid row upon row is an experience no one can ever forget. It is convincing proof of the frailty of human life.—Ex.

The president has asked 23 men to advise him about how to spend the five billions Congress has authorized. Only one adviser really was needed. We are too modest to use our name in this connection. But if the matter finally is left to us our advice will be to use the money for the construction of 2,000,000 new homes at $2,500 apiece for people who are now improperly housed. This would make business hum in every American county and put two million families on a better footing.—Paris Appeal.

The rehabilitation of down-and-out farmers is one of the finest activities in which the Government is engaged. In every county in the nation selected men are being put back upon the land, with all necessary livestock and machinery for a good start. But the country will have its joke, even at the expense of so worthy an effort. It is that a city man at the head of the rehabilitation department made out a list of things from which the selected farmers were to choose things for future needs, as follows: Two female hogs, two female cows, five female sheep, forty female chickens and one female mule.—Paris Appeal.

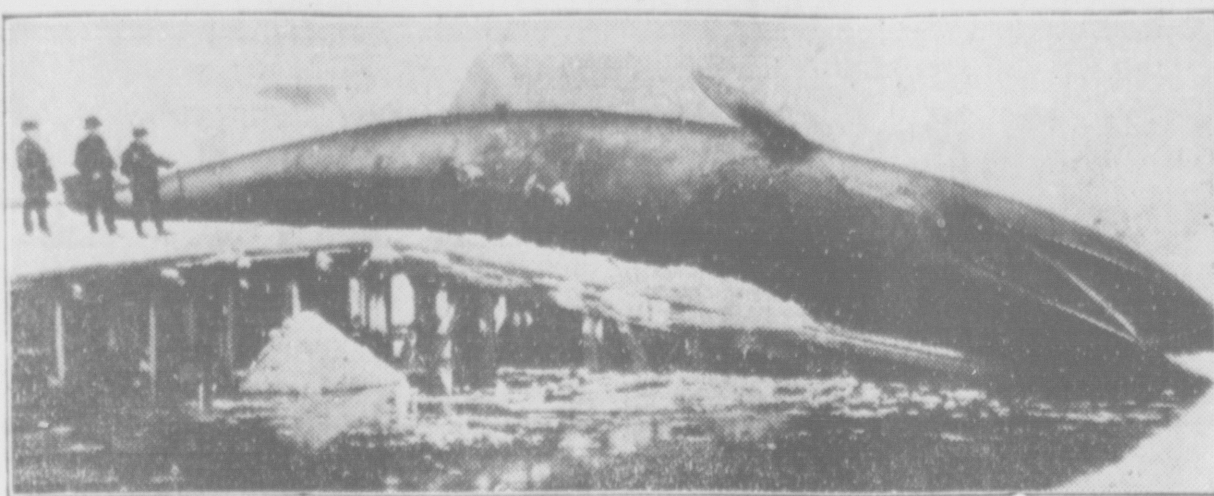

Do not get the notion that when the barons, Magna Charta in one hand and battle-axe in the other, cornered King John at Runnymede, they were sore or anything like that. When Charles Martel turned back Attila at Tours, it was just good clean fun. And when Max Baer hit Primo Carnariva with everything but the water bucket, his heart was nevertheless flowing with loving-kindness for the big Italian. We are moved to these historical musings by a news dispatch from Washington quoting President Harper Sibley of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce as saying that the chamber's resolutions opposing administration policies will be presented to Mr. Roosevelt "in a friendly way." Just like the spirit that animates the spring strawberry festival.—Pose-Dispatch.

THE "PENGUIN FAMILY" FUN-NY LITTLE MEN WITH DRESS SUITS WITH THE
WHALE EXHIBIT

Something new at last, said the Press representative of the Pacific Whaling Co. as he barked into the Journal-Transcript office and layed a heavily loaded portfolio on our desk and began telling us of the wonders with the Big Whale Exhibit which will be here Wednesday, May 8 only. This something new is the group of live Penguins that the Pacific Whaling Co. is carrying with the display for this tour. The funny little bird family that stand erect and walks like men and look as though they were dressed in hard shirt fronts and two tail coats. These little birds from the Anti-artic waters do not fly but walk and swim only. Live the biggest part of the time in water and will only enter water that is salted. Will not swim in fresh water. In place of wings they have flippers or fins, walk erect in the manner of Chas. Chaplin when out of water. In fact these little fellows are very awkward and are quite funny with their funny rolling walk.

They eat only live fish and the fish must be in the water so that they can catch them themselves. They likewise mate only once in a lifetime and lay but two eggs a year—one in September and one in February. These little birds are very affectionate and like to be petted. It is said that when mated if one or the other should die the other will soon follow. As they become grief stricken over the loss of their mate and die from grief over their loss. Along with the big Whale this family of live Penguins will be on display from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. daily. There is a number of other exhibits on the hundred and fifty foot railroad car which will be here Wednesday, May 8.

The exhibition car will be located at the Frisco depot with Captain David Barnett and his staff of Whalers in attendance to explain all the details of the exhibit.

How Cardui Helps
Women To Build Up

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up. Certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

SUSPECT IN COOTER BANK
CASE FREED AT HEARING

Alvin Allen, the Pemiscot county automobile salesman suspected of being "finger man" for the robbery of the Bank of Cooter on November 4, 1933, was released Thursday after a preliminary hearing in Caruthersville before Justice A. Elliott.

A charge filed against him was dismissed because two state witnesses refused to testify and the state consequently lacked evidence to prosecute.

The witnesses, Aaron Richardson and Lester Sheals, were supposed to have implicated Allen in confessions made to Sergeant R. R. Reed and R. E. Stewart, special agent from the Frisco railroad, both of whom have been working to solve the Cooter bank robbery case.

Early last year Sheals and Richardson were caught and jailed on charges of robbing the Bank of Kensett, Ark. Admitting the robbery, they also confessed escaping with $3449.75 belonging to the Cooter bank, after keeping Abie Rushing, the cashier, and his wife prisoners in their home during one night.

Sheals was sentenced to twenty-one years in the penitentiary and Richardson, to seven, for robbing the Kensett bank, and both were taken to the Tucker prison farm. Recently, they were released to Missouri officers for prosecution on the Cooter robbery and were taken to Caruthersville, where they were expected to testify against Allen. They will probably remain in jail until the July term of the Pemiscot county circuit court.

No. 12N Rose Clipper Plow

The same fine plowing satisfaction is to be found in all Vulcan Plows. The Rose Clipper Steel Plows are built with same painstaking care and accuracy as all of our other series. A steel Plow must have a general all purpose moldboard to assure perfect turning of the furrow regardless of the soil and plowing conditions.

The Rose Clipper Plow does a perfect job of plowing even under the most unusual conditions. It's ruggedly built to give years of perfect plowing satisfaction.

Vulcan Engineers have done a real job of plow designing on the Rose Clipper Series as is evidenced by the ever increasing demand for this highly popular plow. It will give absolute satisfaction.

A few distinctive features of the Vulcan Rose Clipper Plows:

The combined Saddle and Landslide in one piece is of Charcoal Iron, properly designed for strength. A replaceable Chilled Heel is easily and cheaply renewed when worn.

A Crucible Steel Plate is attached to the Landslide. The Moldboard and Point are of High Carbon Crucible Steel, very durable and will scour well in all but the very difficult or sticky soils and for these soils we recommend our Black Land Plows.

Each Rose Clipper Plow is regularly equipped and priced with Extra Point and Wrench.

NEGRO JAILED FOR FAILING TO PAY OLD CITY FINE

Edna Davis, a Sikeston negro who failed to work out a city fine in March, was arrested last Friday night in a cabin behind the Del Rey Hotel.

Davis was found after an extensive search of Tin Can alley cabins conducted by Night Marshal Gid Daniels and Walter Kendall, chief of police. He is now in the city jail, where he will be held for non-payment of his fine.

Arrested March 5, Davis was fined $17 for drunkenness and fighting. He was committed to the street commissioner and ordered to work out the fine, but he did not report. Davis is also suspected of stealing two suits, two pair of shoes, and a pair of trousers from another negro.

AMERICAN LEGION

TO FIGHT ACCIDENTS

The highway safety problem took a long step toward solution lately with the announcement that the American Legion is to carry on an aggressive, organized program in the interest of automobile accident prevention. The program is detailed in a booklet jointly published by the Legion and the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters.

Under the suggested plan, the safety program will be handled by the Legion's Americanism Commission. Working under it will be State Traffic Committees, composed of representatives from each district. These committees in each state will maintain contact with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Motor Vehicle Commission, the State Highway Patrol and the Legislature.

Next there will be district safety committees, composed of a representative from each county in the district. These will hold meetings with county safety committees, to be composed of a representative of each local post in the county. The representative of each local post will work with local police, schools, city councils and engineering departments. All of the committees will cooperate with automobile clubs, insurance companies, newspapers, safety associations and similar organizations.

Workers in the cause of safety believe that the Legion can be of tremendous aid in reducing the inexcusable accident toll—a toll which reached 35,000 people killed on streets and highways last year. The Legion is to be complimented on accepting this arduous duty—and the result will be happier and safer living for the people of the country.

STATE'S APRIL RAINFALL

BELOW 46-YEAR NORMAL

Although Southeast Missourians had a great sufficiency of rain during April, the entire state's precipitation was almost an inch below that of a forty-six year normal for Missouri.

The total rainfall in the state last month was 2.94 inches, while the normal is 3.92, according to figures released in St. Louis by Roscoe Nunn, head of a department of agriculture weather bureau.

The rainfall has been large enough, however, to make the present condition of most crops satisfactory. By the end of last week, corn planting had become almost general, and in the Southeast counties, cotton planting was well under way.

Wheat, oats, rye, barley and alfalfa have made good to excellent progress, Mr. Nunn said. Some wheat is twenty inches high; much of it is jointing; and some has reached booting stage. Early planted oats are beginning to stool, and some rye and barley are heading. Pastures are fair to very good, though in some places the effects of last year's drought are still noticeable.

While tomatoes and other truck garden products are making satisfactory progress, most strawberry beds are dead, with probably only about a fourth of the usual acreage expected to yield.

Washington Comment

An April day of collar-wilting heat turned the thoughts of the legislators on Capitol hill to springtime in the Rockies, the banks of the Wabash and other subjects having nothing to do with the swelter and humidity of a Washington summer, but the indications are that congressional noses will be close to the grindstone for some time to come. The law-making mill has slowed down somewhat, the grist to be ground continuing to arrive in car load lots, which is a bad combination if knocking off is contemplated. Banking requires attention. The NRA needs a new foundation, or at least some props. Social security is a large and pressing matter. The bonus payment sleeps lightly and is far from the snoring stage. The White House pressure for action along many lines is strong. Upon the whole, it looks as though Congress were in for a protracted season of face-mopping, illumination by means of midnight oil and other badges of hard and long-continued toil. Speaking of toil, constituents have something to learn if they think that their congressional representatives have no business in Washington more serious than picnics, beer bouts and pleasure jaunts.

The move of a foreign government to put a curb on submarines warfare is based partly on an honest desire to take some of the horror out of war and partly on the circumstance that in the last world-conflict the allies came off second best so far as under-sea activities were concerned. The submarine has an advantage over all other fighting machines, in that it can remain practically concealed until the moment of attack. How far nations having definite plans for defense or aggression will be willing to go, along the line of dropping the submarine, is something that was remains to be ascertained. A man-propelled vessel of that type was tried during the Civil War with partial success, and thereafter fifty years of effort were spent in the perfecting of underwater craft. The submarine came slowly and it may depart slowly.

A New England train reaches a speed of 110 miles per hour, a performance considered worthy of notice in the papers, and possibly establishing a record of some kind. Away back in 1848, there was a train that hit it off at 63 miles per hour. Considering the improvements in equipment that have been made since 1848, the old-timers did not make a bad showing.

Testimony given by United States army officers before a House committee, to the effect that the Canadian boundary should be fortified, was most untimely. It will have no support outside the limited circle in which a chip is carved perpetually on the shoulder. Each year, millions of citizens of the United States receive practical instructions in friendly and satisfactory international relations when they slip in to and out of the Dominion almost as easily as they shuttle back and forth across the line which divides Pennsylvania from New Jersey. As a matter of fact, anyone whose conduct is governed by the most elementary principles that tend to make foreign travel pleasant, finds himself at home in Canada. The adjustment required is less than that which is necessary, for example, when a Vermonters goes to Arizona. The President's comments on the incident are so timely that his summary is quoted in full.

"I call your especial attention to the fact that the Government not only accepts as an accomplished fact the permanent peace conditions cemented by many generations of friendship between the Canadian and American peoples, but expects to live up to not only the letter but the spirit of our treaties relating to the permanent disarmament of our 3000 miles of common boundary."

3 AMONG CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES AT M. U.

Three Skeston residents are among the 729 students who will be candidates for degrees at the University of Missouri commencement on Wednesday morning, June 5.

They are Glenn W. Anderson, a candidate for the degree of bachelor of science in agriculture; Edith Esta Becker, candidate for a bachelor of science degree in education; and Conley Purcell, a candidate for a degree of bachelor of laws.

Commencement week activities will begin at the university on Sunday, June 2, when the Rev. Arthur James McClung, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church at Springfield, Mo., delivers the baccalaureate sermon. Monday will be class day for seniors. The commencement exercises will begin at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Dr. George F. Zook, director of the American Council of Education and former United States commissioner of education, will deliver the address.

These other Southeast Missourians are also candidates for degrees: Donald McCreery, Oliver and William Arthur Owenby of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of arts; William Brady Camp of Lilbourn, James Meredith of Poplar Bluff, and Given Edwin Shively and Louis Bernard Arnold, of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of arts; William Duncan Shrader of Hayti and Clarence Edward Ford of Doniphan, bachelor of science in agriculture; Mary Jo Sherwood of Dexter, bachelor of science in home economic.

Marshall Morgan Walker of Bertrand and Rufe Dalton of Doniphan, bachelor of science in business administration; William Perry Wright, Jr., of Charleston, bachelor of science in public administration; Alfred C. Moon of Malden, bachelor of science in education; Edward William Edelen of Charleston, Elizabeth Baldwin of Kennett, and Margaret Grace Wolpers of Poplar Bluff, Bachelor of journalism; Robert Burrett Oliver, III, and Sanford Russell Vandivort of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of laws; James Otto Lottes of Cape Girardeau, bachelor of science in Medicine; and Lillian Imogene Martin of Fomfelt, a graduate nurse. Mr. Edelen completed work for his degree in January.

TROOPERS HERE BREAK PREVIOUS RECORD FOR RECOVERING STOLEN CARS

More stolen automobiles were recovered by Troop E patrolmen last month than during any other month in their history, records kept by Sergeant R. R. Reed show. The April total of fifteen cars recovered is three times as large as the number ordinarily found by troopers and twice as large as the previous high figures.

All kinds of automobiles, old and new, were recovered by patrolmen last month. Their values, ranging from as low at $50 to $700, total $4025.

In addition to their work with stolen cars, patrolmen were unusually active last month in performing others of their duties. Trooper Melvin Dace recovered five stolen bicycles, and together, all troopers made ninety-one arrests, thirty-four of them for felony charges.

Thirteen convictions for felonies have already followed the arrests, with sentences totaling forty-three years. Of the ninety-one persons arrested thirty-eight have been convicted; six have been released; and seven turned over to other officers. The cases of thirty-six are pending, and those of four have been dismissed by the patrol.

Troopers also helped at six accidents during April; had 812 motor lights corrected; issued 150 warnings; and rendered 19 services. To complete this work they traveled 25,823 miles.

CROWDS FILL GRABER'S ON FIRST DAY OF SALE

Despite cold, rainy weather crowds so filled the front entrance and the sidewalks before Graber's early Saturday morning that employees could scarcely open the doors for the store's huge remodeling sale.

Immediately afterward and throughout the day, people filled the store aisles trying to buy at bargain prices all kinds of merchandise sold at Graber's. Even with the help of an extra force of clerks, employees were rushed to fill orders.

Inside the store large placards

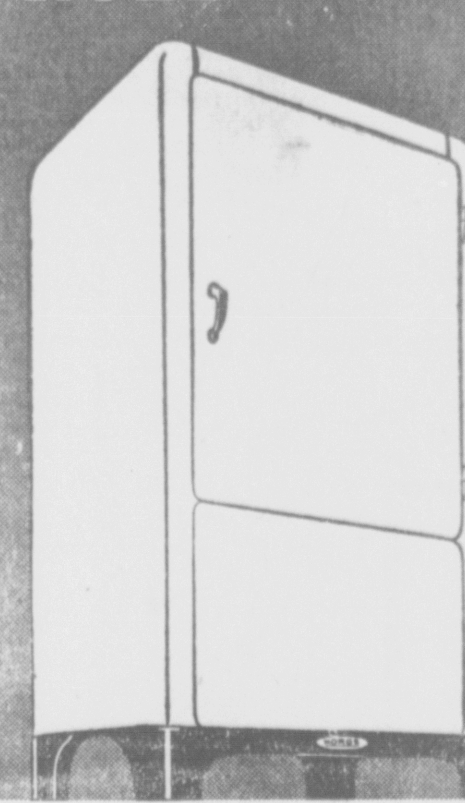

told of the sale, of especially attractive bargains, and of prize offers. In front, behind a complete background of Graber's wrapping paper, which covered the show windows, were large bills announcing the sale and listing articles available at reduced prices. The greatest treat of the year—

love scenes by William Powell and Jean Harlow—words and music by Oscar Hammerstein II and Jerome Kern, Dean of American composers. Malone theatre Thursday and Friday.

The view taken of the situation in Washington at this time, according to impressions gathered by M. R. Rowland of this county on his recent visit there, is that pressure against the AAA regulations on the part of textile manufacturers and other interests is great that abandonment of the government's plan to aid agriculture may be forced. If this is done and all restrictions are removed, cotton will drop back to its old level of 5 or 6 cents a pound and it will again be a race among cotton producers to see who can raise the most of the staple. No farmer nor any person who has the farmer's interests at heart will wish to see this occur and the country go back to its old level of prices and practices. Just now it seems to be largely up to the farmers themselves to protect themselves, for unless they put up a fight something nearly as strong for the program as is being put up by various interests against it they are likely to lose all the ground they have gained. This would be the severest blow that could happen to the South.—Caruthersville Democrat.

Mrs. Rubye H. Thompson, County school superintendent of Mississippi county has received notice that a member of the State Department of Education will be in Charleston on Thursday, May 9, to meet the school boards of districts where the average daily attendance is less than fifteen relative to their state aid for next year.

$3000 LOSS RESULTS FROM FIRE AT BENTON

Damage estimated at $3000 resulted when fire early Thursday destroyed a barn and chicken house owned by Everett A. Dye and located at the northern edge of Benton.

The loss included farm machinery and hay stored in the barn. Chickens and the stock in the barn were saved, but by the time the fire was discovered soon after midnight, it had burned too much of the loft, where it started, to be extinguished. Members of a bucket brigade worked in vain.

The blaze was thought to have been caused by lightning. The chicken house, joined the barn, had been finished only a few days before the fire. The Dye house, about 100 yards from the scene of the fire, a second barn and a garage were not damaged.

A college boy has asked his senator to get him a mountain lion for a pet, and an Idaho woman has offered to trap and ship a specimen. ELEVEN DRAGLINES TO REPAIR LEVY BREAK

Nearly twenty U. S. Engineers will be working out of Kennett soon, directing the work of eleven draglines that are being brought into this territory for use in repairing the approximately 37 breaks in the levees of the St. Francis River between St. Francis and Monette, Ark. The engineers hope to finish the work of repairing these breaks within twenty days after the draglines arrive.

The United States government appropriated $89,000 from the Section Seven fund, a permanent fund set aside by the government for use in such emergencies and the money has already been transferred to the Memphis office of the U. S. Engineers. Engineers and levee boards in the area had estimated that it would require that amount to complete the work of repairing that many breaks.

The engineers are at present making their final surveys and staking out the work preparatory to the placing of the 11 draglines that are being shipped here from all around this vicinity. The capacity of each dragline is estimated, will be from one and a half to two cubic yards. These draglines, providing the weather is satisfactory, will work three eight-hour shifts, or 24 hours per day, thus making it possible to complete the work in the short time of three weeks. Twenty-one of the levee breaks are on the Missouri side of the river with sixteen more located on the Arkansas side.

Kennett will be the location for the field office of the engineers with most of the detail work being carried on from the local office. Among those engineers who will probably be working out of this office are: W. C. Abernathy, Jim Hoge, Frank Spencer, Cecil Gregory, R. Hunter, William Harris, E. P. Burley, Harvey Utley, and others.—Dunkin Democrat.

Personal and
Society News
From Oran

The Methodist congregation gave their pastor an old fashioned "pounding" after prayer meeting Wednesday night of last week. The reverend gentleman expressed his thanks in the following original poem:

"A grand And Glorious Feeling"
(With apologies to Edgar A. Guest)

By W. H. Hansford, Oran, Mo.
When your pantry's almost empty
And your pocketbook is flat;
When you want some o' that thing,
And you need some o' that,
Tis a grand and glorious feeling,
So all the Hansfords say,
To have your friends come calling.

In a friendly sort o' way.
When you haven't got the money
To meet your monthly bills;
And when you feel faint-hearted
To face life's dreadful ills,
Tis a grand and glorious feeling,
When you've gone to church to pray,
To have your church folks calling
In a friendly sort o' way.

Like flour, sugar and lard,
And innumerable other good things—
Well, you wish you were a bard;
For then you'd sing their praises,
If you could think just what to say.

When these friends come calling
In a friendly sort o' way,
Since I'm neither bard nor poet,
But a humble pastor instead,
I'll simply say, "God bless you,
Who have my family fed."

And when you need my service,
Whether it be night or day,
I'll not forget your visit
In that friendly sort o' way.

"The number of baby chicks produced so far this year is 40 per cent below last year. Authorities predict a serious shortage of both poultry and eggs next Fall with corresponding high prices. This presents a fine opportunity for those poultry raisers who have stuck to the game. Feed costs are low and our good poultry men should make a handsome profit before the year is over."

NEW MADRID COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

The state department tells us that they do not plan to print a State Course of Study for next year which means that teachers must use the same old copies that were used the past two years. It will pay teachers to hold on to their old copies for the supply is exhausted and new copies of the 1933 edition are not available. Teachers quitting the profession should leave their Courses of Study for successors.

In a letter to school boards just before the April election, we suggested that the budget for the next school year would be about the same as the budget for the past year unless the legislature provided for an increase in revenue. At this writing the legislature is still in a quandary and we do not know what results to expect.

For this reason several boards are again resorting to flexible contracts for the coming term, writing the contract for the amount that they are reasonably sure to be able to pay and then promising a bonus in case of a surplus at the end of the year. If a bonus is promised it should be specified on the bottom of the contract in definite terms. Last year the following clause was used:

"Provided, that if sufficient funds are on hand in the Teachers Fund at the end of the school year that a bonus of $ _____ month shall be paid to said teacher, or any part thereof that may be on hands."

In case of more than one teacher in the district, the following statement should also be included in the above clause:

"If not enough to pay bonus in full then balance shall be prorated among teachers."

Miss Betty Ann Abernathy of the Tinsley School was married on April 9th to Clay Clarahan of Portageville, and she does not plan to teach next year. Miss Virginia Twitty has been employed a Tinsley for the coming term.

The writer visited the closing day exercises at the Farrenburg School last Friday and participating in the bountiful community dinner which was spread for all. Graduation address was made in honor of following eighth grade graduates: Pauline Moss, Janette Robinson, Orville Blue, Eugene Moss, James Sweet, Hollace South, and Thomas Wilson. Mrs. Estelle Smith Horton is the teacher and will teach there again next year.

Other graduation exercises visited lately and list of graduates are as follows:

Wilburn: Elmo Kennedy, Daisy Wilburn, Alpha Mae Clore, Hazel Cook, Miss Dema Parker teacher.

Cade: Helen Wilburn, Mrs. Alma Skaggs, teacher.

Point Pleasant: Pauline McCrady, Lucille Waggoner, Miss Randolph, teacher.

Fairview: Sibyl Sims, Jewel Beck, Warren Cockman, Marie Shell, Motell Beck, Annie Johnson, Reva Cantwell, Roland Tetley, Richard Cantwell is principal and Mrs. Geneva Calvin Beck, primary.

Tinsley: H. B. Hillis, Paul Roberts. Betty Ann Abernathy, teacher.

Scott: Roy Bertholomey, Freda Carson, Bethel Girvin, Mrs. Ruth Marr is principal and Miss Helen Long, primary.

Other lists of graduates will be given later as well as new school boards and newly elected teachers. Many boards have not reported as yet.

County eighth grade graduation exercises for colored rural schools were held at New Madrid on April 23 under the sponsorship of Jeanes Supervisor Corinne H. Johnson, and the following graduates received diplomas: Carrie Mitchell and J. S. Minner of St. Mary School, and Virginia Manna, Scott McGaw and Essex Thompson of Neumann School. Mary Flournoy is teacher at St. Mary and Pearl Wade at Neumann. Nine more pupils took the final examination but did not reach the required mark, however several of them made a good showing.

CITY SOFTBALL LEAGUE SCHEDULE IS COMPLETED

A schedule for the city softball league, which will be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was completed this week, when three new teams were entered to replace others which dropped from the group.

Players will now participate in two four-team leagues, called the American and the National. The National league is composed of the Sikes Hardware team, managed by John and Kendall Sikes; the Lions club team, by Clay Mitchell; the American Legion, by Harry Dudley; and the Highway department, which will probably be managed by Melvin Dace.

In the American league are these teams: H. & L. drug store, by Jack Lancaster; Buckner-Ragsdale's Store, by Harold Arcell; the national guard, by Joe Ryan; and the Midwest Dairy Products Company by Ted Kirby. Each team will have a roster of twenty men.

Doubleheader games will be played on the high school athletic field each Wednesday and Friday evenings, beginning May 22. The first match will be started at 7, and the second at 8 o'clock. Permission to use the school floodlights without charge was granted at a council meeting Tuesday night.

Admission to all games will be free. Five cents will be charged for championship games, however, so that sponsors may secure enough money to buy a trophy.

Spalding rules will be official, and members of the Chamber of Commerce athletic committee will make rules, appoint and approve umpires, and settle controversies. Team managers must file lists of players seven days before the

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear little son and brother, Billy Monroe Demaris, who was killed by Frisco train one year ago today, May 3, 1934. We will always think of the little grave not far away, where we laid our darling a year ago today.

We are thinking of you Darling; we loved to see you play.

Only God knows how we miss you since he took you away. You are a shining angel without a worry or care, and you know when God calls us we will meet again up there.

Sadly missed by parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estel Demaris and children.

WELTECKE WINS SUIT AGAINST NEGRO CHURCH

Roscoe Weltecke was given a judgment last week against the Sikeston negro Methodist Episcopal church when his unlawful detainer suit was heard in the Cape Girardeau county circuit court.

Weltecke was also granted a monthly rent of $25 and a stay of execution to July 1, 1935.

First filing an unlawful detainer action in Judge Joseph W. Myers' court here, Weltecke withdrew the suit and instituted it, instead, in the Scott county circuit court. It was taken to Jackson on a change of venue.

In his original petition Weltecke stated he bought the church property at a foreclosure sale on August 18, 1934. Church members refused either to turn it over to him or to pay rent for its use, he said.

NEW MADRID LAW FIRM DISSOLVES

The law firm of Sharp and Baynes of New Madrid of many years standing was dissolved Tuesday, May 1 so states Col. R. F. Baynes of the firm. Both attorneys will continue to occupy their present quarters but will practice separately.

Neither partner has made any expression concerning the future, although it is believed that E. F. Sharp of the old firm will take his son Bryon and form a new firm of Sharp and Sharp. Mr.

Sharp could not be reached for a statement.—Lilbourn Banner.

Pupils in the Mater Dolorosa School at Holyoke, Mass., found their desks laden with candy, fruit and sweetmeats, distributed by the widow of Anthony Symasko, whose dying wish was that every child should have something to remember him by. As a permanent keepsake each pupil received a pencil with Symasko's name engraved on it.

EDSON R. WAITE
Siketon, Mo.

Jack Williams, editor and publisher of the Waycross (Ga.) Journal-Herald, says:

"I spent last Monday in the heart of the Okefenokee Swamp, a guest of the engineering party that is making the survey of the Scenic Highway through this Great wonderland, much of which has never been surveyed or plotted. An area larger than the state of Rhode Island with twenty-one fair sized islands and hundreds of smaller ones has no parallel in the United States.

"The history of this section reads like a romance, down where the semi-tropical sunshine filters through jungles of gray moss and plays hide-and-go-seek among the wild roses, yellow jasmine and shimmering wisteria. Here the soft wind whispers sweet melodies as it dances through the groves of stately pines, palms and magnolias, bringing to the ears of the waters as it gently laps the shores of the fern-fringed lakes and streams.

"Here the shimmering surface of the open waters of the lakes and creeks was once broken by the rhythmic dip of the Indian's paddle, as he plied their placid depths, and the perfume-laden breezes sang sweet lullabies to the dark-eyed Indian maidens.

"Now all is quiet in these isolated spots, except possibly for the tap of a woodpecker on a dead tree, the bark of a squirrel, the gobble of a wild turkey, the whistle of a bobwhite, the cry of some animal to his mate, or the occasional splash when some alligator, floating like a log, suddenly sings into the murky waters. Leaving no trace other than the rippling waters as they gently kiss the nearby shores."

21 JUGS OF LIQUOR SEIZED IN RAID HERE

Twenty-one jugs of liquor were seized and Oscar Campbell was arrested and taken to Cape Girardeau by federal agents who raided a garage lot near Campbell's home of North Ranney street Saturday afternoon.

At Cape Girardeau, where he appeared before Commissioner Caruthers, Campbell pled not guilty to possessing untaxed whiskey, waived a preliminary hearing, and was bound over to the October term of the federal court.

Campbell was released on a $1000 bond. The court will convene in Cape Girardeau on Monday, October 14.

Entering the garage building, which contains a bedroom and a storage room besides space for a car, agents found the whiskey, smashing nineteen jugs and keeping two for evidence.

Campbell was arrested, he thought, because he had put his car in the garage to avoid getting it wet, since he had had it repaired Saturday. The garage was left open, he said, and was used at different times by several residents of the neighborhood.

The agents, O. B. Knapp, and Mr. Jenkins, both of Cape Girardeau, also searched Campbell's house and outbuildings after Campbell had given them keys to unlock the doors. They found nothing incriminating, he said.

A man whose name was not learned was said to be sought here unsuccessfully Saturday for questioning about the liquor. The garage which was raided is located on North Ranney's intersection with East Center street.

AFRICA'S DARK CHIEFS HAVE WHITE SLAVES

Paris—Reports shortly to be issued will show an alarming increase in a new form of slavery in the African colonies of France. These reports concern the traffic in white girls for the harems of colored potentates.

So far, it will be shown, this form of slavery has defied all efforts at control, for most of the girls involved are of age and have the right to sign their liberty away if they wish to do so.

At first, this traffic in white girls was confined to Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco, but now it is extending all over Northern Africa. It is stated that there is hardly a dusky vassal of France in this territory who has not a quota of white girls in his harem.

They may be "wives" or just dancing girls, but in either case, their position is the same—they have been bought in the open market.

The situation is amazing—the white races which have done so much to stamp out slavery in Africa supplying slaves for the race that was formerly enslaved.

Many of the victims, it is true, believe that when they sign their contracts they are taking up dancing engagements in the harems and palaces of the African "Kings" and nobles; but, once signed up, they are no longer their own masters.

They are fed and housed so long as their looks last, then—beggary, or worse.

It is believed that throughout Northern Africa there are thousands of the white slaves of all European nationalities.

OUTSTANDING EVENTS IN U. S. NAVAL HISTORY

Fighting on the Peiho River—June 25, 1859—"Blood is thicker than water." In 1859 England and France were at war with China. These Chinese had built some forts on the mouth of the Peiho River (near Peking) and had placed obstructions across the mouth of the river. English forces under Admiral Sir James Hope were sent to clear away these obstructions. America was not involved in the war, and Captain Josiah Tattnall, USN, watched the operation from a chartered steamer. Suddenly the Chinese forts opened a heavy fire on the British forces. For a time Tattnall watched the British being shot down like rabbits. Finally he cried, "Blood is thicker than water," and manning a boat with some American sailors, he went to the aid of the British. The boat was sunk by a Chinese shell, and Tattnall and his sailors swam to the British flagship. Climbing aboard this ship which flew the British flag, they helped to load the British guns and to fire them at the Chinese troops. Later Tattnall helped to bring English reserve forces into the battle. Such actions on Tattnall's part were a direct violation of America's neutrality, and he was reprimanded for his behavior. However, this deed did much to cement the friendship of the American and English in the Far East.

FRANK DYE AGAIN HEADS RURAL MAIL CARRIERS

The Scott and the Mississippi county rural carriers' associations were combined and officers were elected at an annual meeting of Scott county rural carriers held at the Oran parochial school Sunday.

The officers, who will serve a one year term are Frank Dye of Sikeston, president, and Clarence O'Neal of Illinois, secretary-treasurer. An East Prairie carrier was chosen vice-president.

Auxiliary officers, who were re-elected are Mrs. Clarence O'Neal of Illinois, president; Mrs. Frank Dye of Sikeston, vice-president; and Mrs. Ben Adams of Benton, secretary-treasurer.

These Sikeston residents attended the meeting: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Williams, their sons, Glenn and Hiram, and Earl O'ear. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. John Noggle of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chunn of East Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Marshall of Charleston, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Millersville.

The next meeting of the Scott-Mississippi county rural mail carriers' association will be held at Chaffee on the first Sunday in May, 1936.

A convention of the Southeast Missouri rural mail carriers' organization will be held at Steele on May 30 of the year.

SIKESTON SENIORS RANK HIGH IN APTITUDE TEST

In a college aptitude test conducted recently by the University of Missouri, Sikeston high school seniors ranked above average, their median being 66, while the state's was 58. Superintendent Roy V. Ellis announced Monday, Sikeston's upper quarter showed 80 as compared with 76, while the lower quartile was 48 instead of 44.

The highest ranking student was Mary Margaret Russell, whose score of 118 placed her in the highest 1 per cent. Helen Johnson, who ranked second with 106, was in the upper 3 per cent, and Evelyn Allard, third, Billy Bob Donnell, and Mary Emma Powell, were in the upper 12 per cent.

These others in the upper fourth, Marion Thrower, Mildred Williams, Margaret Fisher, Pauline Huser, John Layton, and Dorothy Waller, ranging in the order named, were placed in the upper 20 per cent of the 14,000 students tested in Missouri and the 30,000 in Ohio, the state where the examination was completed.

Only three Sikeston seniors ranked in the lower 10 per cent.

SENATOR B. M. CUTTING KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Bronson M. Cutting, United States senator from New Mexico, and at least three other persons were killed early Monday when a twin motored Transcontinental Western Air Company plane crashed near Atlanta, Ga.

The three known dead are the pilot, and an unidentified woman. Nine other passengers were taken to the Samaritan hospital in Macon, fifteen miles from the field in which the plane fell after the fuel supply was exhausted.

Senator Cutting, who sat well back in the cabin, was identified by papers found in his pocket. His billfold contained $576 in cash, a picture of his mother, and a check to a telephone company bearing the name of Oliva M. Cutting.

Thirteen persons were on the ship when it crashed. Arriving at Kansas City from Albuquerque, at 2:30 Monday morning, the pilots discovered that the Kansas City airport was covered with fog and smoke, and after they had tried unsuccessfully to land for twenty minutes, they were ordered to attempt to reach the department of commerce emergency landing field at Kirksville. They were not far from the field when the fuel supply gave out.

Two brothers were killed and two other young men were severely injured early Sunday when the car in which they were riding collided with a fast northbound Frisco passenger train at a railroad crossing in Portageville.

The dead are Calvin Hamilton, 21 and Virgil Hamilton, 17, instantly killed when their necks were broken. The third brother, Henry Hamilton, 15, is in the St. Francis hospital at Cape Girardeau, where he is expected to recover if complications do not develop. The second man seriously hurt, Oscar McAllister, 28, is in a Memphis, Tenn., hospital.

Willie Neil, 18, and Luther Noland, 17, also occupants of the car sustained only minor injuries. All the young men were residents of Point Pleasant.

Returning to their homes after spending the day in Portageville, the young men came to the crossing while their car was traveling about 35 miles an hour. When the automobile ran into the side of the locomotive, according to witnesses, the car's rear end was thrown against the coal tender. The impact almost demolished the machine.

Dan Alexander, the Frisco station agent at Portageville, said at an inquest held Sunday that an electric warning bell was ringing and that the locomotive's whistle was being blown as the train approached the crossing at a speed of about 55 miles an hour. Rain-fall was heavy at the time of the accident.

The two dead men were riding in the front seat, Calvin Hamilton driving. The other four men were in back.

Funeral services were held at Portageville Sunday afternoon and burial was in a Portageville cemetery. Besides Henry Hamilton, the two are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hamilton, who are farmers; another brother, Harlan; and three sisters, Lula, Lola and Ruth Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Kirby, of Festus, and Mr. and Mrs. Vodvel Kirby, of Sikeston, are leaving this morning for California on a vacation.

Larry Harper, 14, of Fairhope, Ala., fashioned a diving helmet out of an old gasoline drum and a bicycle pump. To prove his faith in the device, he tied an 8-pound window sash to his arm and lowered himself into 29 feet of water in a sink hole. The air pump failed to function and two hour's resuscitation efforts failed to revive the boy.

The rings of a rattlesnake's tail give little indication of the reptile's age. Rarely is a snake found with more than 10 or 11 rattles. The whip-cracking effect of the tip keeps them broken off and new rattles are grown at the front of the tail.
